the autumn sharpness turns the leaves — and minds to things more immediate than surfing but leaves football games rallies bonfires — quizzes the winter winds of boredom envelop us but spring releases jubilee beach weekends sunbaths — quizzes
it is here then the hot the cold
the dark the light the fun the drudgery the seasons and all are carolina

the people the places the crowds
the flow of good spirit the spirit of good times
all allow us the release from studies — people congregate — together all are happy and the clouds run high — at the corners of all the shafts of serenity through the shades pierce the fabric of carefree days and yet all belongs to carolina

in all the excitement the wonder of the moment endures in lights hanging the suspended action and the close of day —
to stop and look around to see exactly where we are is amazing enough to notice that the sun sets red or that the lights light or that people have fun — they relax and whatever happens
the moments create carolina

sound of hammers sparks of steel arches erected concrete poured changing scenery — who knows what the campus feels — the crash of helmets the cheer of crowds snaking lines of students — goal posts torn with spirits high all know what the campus feels but with it all the mire of bog reflections of high-flying clouds spirits dazed and over all the grey gloom of sky with it all all are carolina — steel remains and yet all cannot be gloom

hark the sound of tar heel hearts

beating with fervent frenzy

jubilant with every win —

haze and high clouds bring milk instead of gin —

the queen of all the beauty reigns calm on the ramp but frenzied behind the stage —

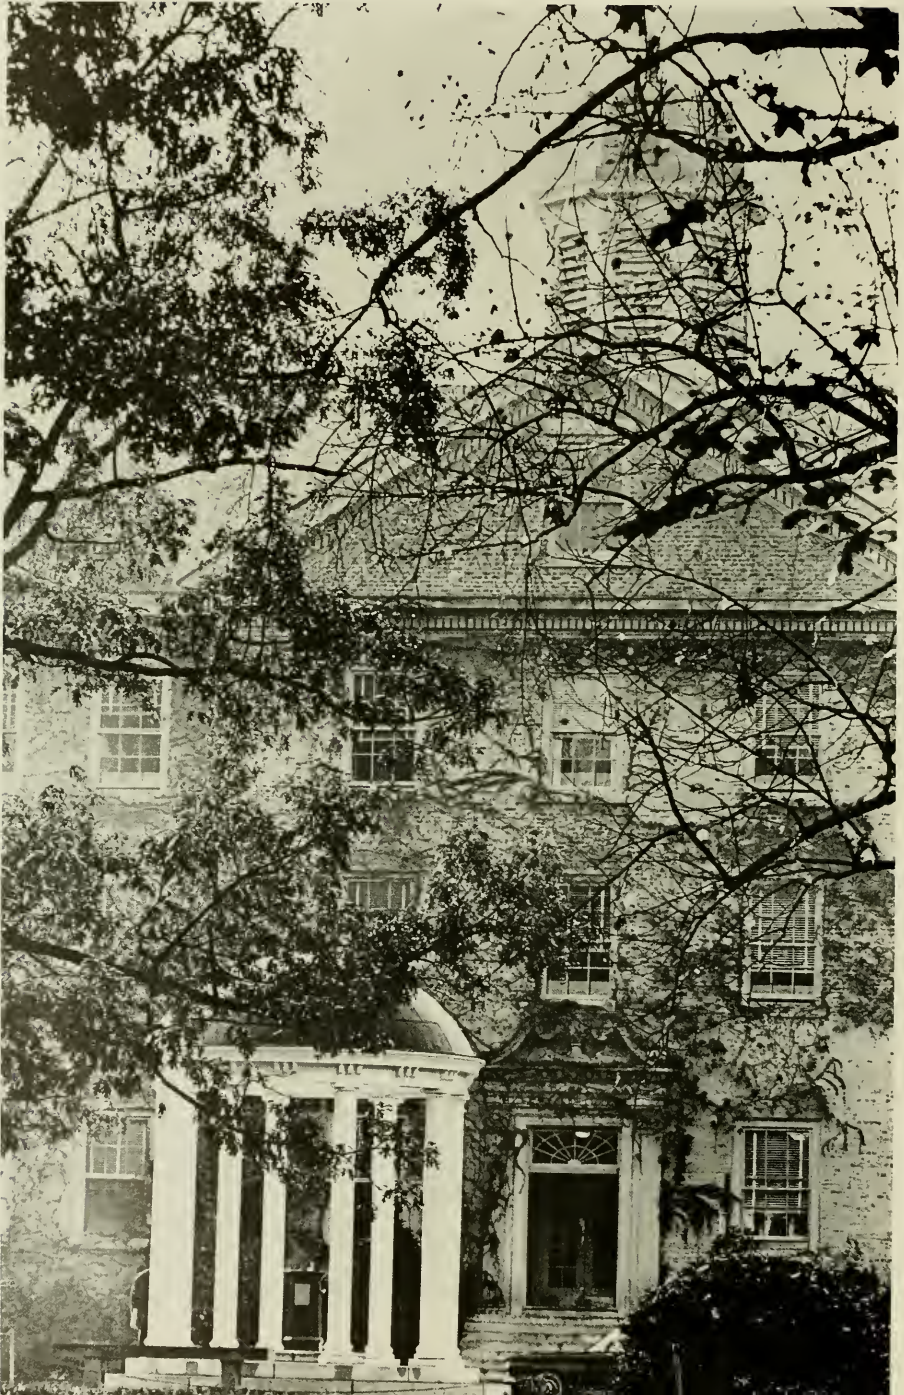

not one is crowned but all the rest

thank God all are CAROLINA

autumn

clad in bermuda shorts tanned nut brown

the "body" drags itself back to the hill —

the dull routine is slowly assumed broken by that first football weekend —

cheering crowds and pert majorettes quicken the spirit of the carolina student — the release from studies is assumed in a regular irregularity and the routine is established —

the year slips by in a montage of action

as freshmen we were told what to do and who to see and how to do it but more we were initiated into the carolina way —
a way that is ground with dull routine but is also quickened by a roaring bonfire and the adrenalinic expectation —
we are entertained by well-known figures and the unmistakable student life hurries to a hurried end with flickering memories

the campus is torn rent bludgeoned but out of the confusion of construction arises
a superstructure remembered only in the finished form — the delicate balance and the deft handling of unwieldy structural steel the pots of cool concrete the blueprints the pipes the bricks the disorder the noise the hot rivets all combine to form a symmetrical addition to the carolina family of fine structures coherent in all respects

the elegance of the diamond the sparkling lustre of the reflection of lights from the golden hair of a beautiful girl the nervous tension and preparation go into the formation of a queen —
 to listen to renown figures of state as Dean Rusk — to await the decision of a nation on its leader — we voice our opinion but what do we count — we count as carolina hurrying to get out of here into something else

we squirm and squeeze and jam together trying to get into kenan stadium but not in vain watching the sharp crunch and caustic grind of two teams battling on the field of honor for the alma mater — some watch hoazily coolers
by their sides but nonetheless they enjoy it as much as anyone else — the saturday release to get out into the air and cheer and raise hell is as much o part of the hurry as three-hour lobs — sitting in the stadium after it is all over and relaxing musing on the hurried game — time to get to partying

and in our time for fun we are entertained — we sit back and maybe drink but we enjoy what we are daing — we get together and whether Macon loves us or not we have fun — how else are we to relax and blow off steam — we are loud at times and we are also quiet listening in enjoyment but when it is all over we are relaxed enough to start over the dull grind imposed upon us for six of the days of the week and we hurry on after everything is over and done with we have to stop and sit somewhere and reflect on what we have done — whether sitting in y-court or walking in the rain there is little time to slow down and see where we ore going — catching a nop can be a favorite pastime — nature looks on smiling-like and is part of the things we have missed — we start the week over and whether we have quizzes or lectures or lobs

 we hurry ogoin toward the weekend — hurry

we have seriousness in our hurry a time to order disorder and collect our thoughts —

we study for quizzes and whether elated or disappointed we keep plugging it out —

we are somber too a time for mourning and remembrance

we honor the great and then we hurry on winter

with the sharp clear crockling of ice or tinkling in the breeze against the pane comes a hibernation o retreat into books for final exams and quizzes — snow flies and spirits are raised to leave to drift in the snow — sculpture takes over as snowfigures are created and wit sails —
 on escape must be followed by return — to quizzes

november 21 weekend brings germans the duke game and parties —

the beat dook parade starts things screaming with the victory bell ringing in the background — thousands cheer to see Carolina beat Duke again and retain possession — that night we are entertained by Ian and Sylvia and the Brothers Four — some watch hazily but all have fun and studies are forgotten for a while — Sunday parties and then the lang awaited Thanksgiving vacation

MAX

Max Morath arrives for another diversion from studies but snow falls and this time the campus is covered quietly because it is exams and because we must strive for that letter grade — the whiteness of the snow covers everything so that sky and ground are one and you are surrounded by it — hide inside and study and study — play some and throw a few snowballs but study

and yet we do have time to see the team and cheer — faces are rasy retreating from the icicles and cold — the cold that quickens the spirit and sharpens the mind — we watch and we graan and then we cheer because Duke falls again — afterwards we party and drink a little or maybe a lot but what the heck — steam needs an escape or the radiatar blows up — we're here and we like it

JOHN MOTLEY MOREHEAD

Rather than attempt to list the numerous accomplishments and gifts of Mr. John Motley Morehead, I am going to try to tell something about the man as his adopted "nephews" saw him.

The most striking quality of Mr. Morehead's was his ever abundant humor. When addressing the scholars every October, his stories and puns would bring resounding laughter which, if one thought about it long enough, could probably still be heard ringing from the marble columns and panelled walls of the beautiful Morehead Planetarium dining room. Also, if you thought long enough you might recall the joke he told about a physics professor when he was here. It seems that Mr. Morehead needed a certain grade and that that physics professor had a favorite dog, which mysteriously disappeared.

Mr. Morehead also wanted to know what he was paying for when he awarded the freshmen their scholarships and insisted on weighing them as a group and figuring the cost per pound.

All in all, there was a certain magnetism in Mr. Morehead due, I imagine, to his humor and to a certain humility which drew one to him. There has never been another man like him. The world has lost a great man and the scholars a benevolent uncle, but he will never be forgotten.

JOHN L. MOREHEAD

Having tagged himself as "the rainmaker," Mr. John L. Morehead is better known at first to the potential scholars, for he is the one who announces the new scholars. Somewhat shyer than Mr. John M. Morehead, Mr. John L. Morehead had an unswerving devotion to the Foundation and to the University of North Carolina unequalled in any other man with the possible exception of his uncle. Although he was very sick and weak this fall, he nevertheless would not be kept from the annual banquet and insisted on being here for the traditional meeting.

He had that same humor and genial personality which seem inherent in the Morehead family, and the scholars flocked to him.

Through his hard work the University of North Carolina and the Morehead Foundation have risen to great heights. "The Rainmaker" will be missed for there is really no one who can fill his shoes.

When walking on campus, take a good look around — at the buildings and at the boys — and then reflect. Most of it would not be here without the efforts of these two men.

spring

as the ice melts and the snow becomes rivulets the campus blooms with spring

freshness — suddenly the campus is alive

again after a winter hibernation —

roses bloom socks are forgotten and the soft april rains provide velvety mud —

the sun slams through the trees with a renewed brightness blocked partially

by new green foliage —

spring has sprung

there is something about this time of the year that makes us desire entertainment of all sorts and entertainment we get — Peter Nero and Hugh Heffner provide listening subtleties which amaze all — and yet with all this entertainment there is still time to wander in the shade cast by cool green leaves where a palpable freshness permeates everything — there is time to think about youth and spring and enjoy that time of the year when a young man's fancy

amid the endless rush and hurry

comes the time for relaxation and play —

psychology and french yield to levity and wine —

suddenly the world is upside down and everyone's name is Tom Jones —

wenching and the Sigma Chi's derby or perhaps a jack daniel's bacchanalia give us the pinpoint of light among the dark and we are happy to discover that fun

is not yet obsolete

shaving cream flies and spirits soar — Jubilee and May are synonymous with beer and light hearts — the baseball diamond is turned to to watch the victorious heels crack their way to victory and in it all is the good sound of happy times — what we're here for is education and diversion from education — beach weekends and lake parties provide the escape needed to freshen ourselves enough to study again

carolina's tribute to a great man of americo brings national figureheads to praise and mourn — a mother and brother recall to us the brilliant and humanitarian career — on unsullied intellect is lost forever to mankind —
we lament his departure for the loss is our own — a respected leader dies a violent and tragic death leaving only memory to transcend the endless void

long lines capped and gowned with distinction wend their solemn march unhurried and careless —past present and future now become one in our eyes

as hope becomes reality and work is finally rewarded — a tedious epoch is waning yielding to time — a new life

emerges before us as we walk

academic

WILLIAM CLYDE FRIDAY

President of the Consolidated University of North Carolina

President Friday's recent achievements have placed him in what is considered the highest ideal administrative-academic position in American colleges and universities and have accounted for much of the progress and prestige of the Consolidated University of North Carolina. Within the past year, he was elected chairman of the American Council on Education, member of the Board of Trustees for the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, member of the Commission on White House Fellows, and member and director of the John and Mary R. Markle Foundation. Also, his influence has recently aroused the interest and favor of the trustees of the Consolidated University of North Carolina in expanding the University system.

Since 1956, when President Friday was appointed chief administrator of the Consolidated University, the students have been proud to claim him as their leader.

PAUL FREDERICK SHARP

Chancellor of the University of North Carolina

His infectious smile and deep sincerity are easily recognizable to the students as among Paul Frederick Sharp's salient characteristics. The University of North Carolina is indeed honored to welcome him as its new Chancellor. His outstanding record of achievements justifies his qualification for this immeasurable task. Chancellor Sharp received his Ph.D. in 1947 from the University of Minnesota and his LL.D. in 1961 from Texas Christian University. Prior to his affiliation with the University of North Carolina, he served as President of Hiram College. He specialized in the field of history and was an instructor at several universities. Chancellor Sharp received the John Simon Guggenheim Fellowship and a Fulbright award to the Universities of Sydney and Melbourne as lecturer of American History.

Chancellor Sharp has faith in the university and its progress, as his words indicate: "But to my mind the university over the next twenty-five years is going to be the very cockpit of research and change, and that's where I want to be."

ADMINISTRATIVE DEANS

CONSOLIDATED UNIVERSITY OFFICERS

EDWARD McGOWAN HEDGPETH, M.D., 1931 (University of Pennsylvania), presently Director, Student Health Service, is very interested in young people and has devoted his life to the student body. An award, The Edward McG. Hedgpeth Award, given by Alpha Epsilon Delta to their most outstanding member, is a testimonial to his devoted service to students. Dr. Hedgpeth, active in both the University and the State of North Carolina, is currently Chairman, Committee on Admissions, School of Medicine; Chairman, Faculty Committee on Athletics; and a member of the Central Committee for the selection of Morehead scholars. An avid outdoorsman, he loves to hunt, fish, and garden. In the future, Dr. Hedgpeth plans to write a history of the development of the U. N. C. Student Health Service.

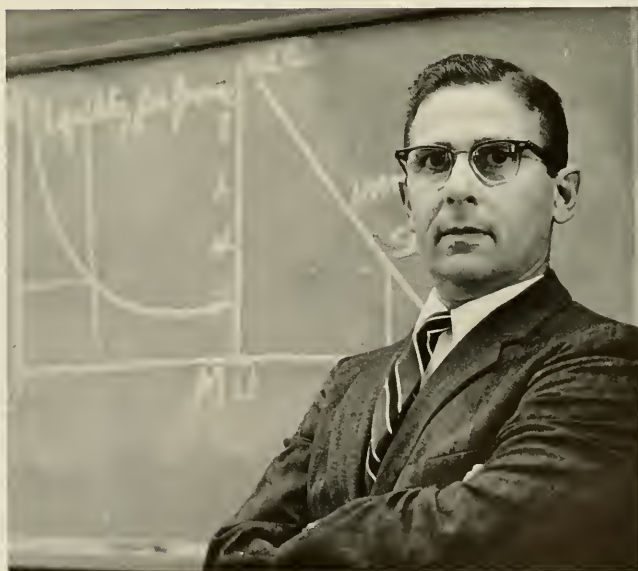

H. DOUGLAS SESSOMS, Ph.D., 1959 (New York University), Associate Professor in Recreational Administration, has a wide field of interest. Scholastically, he specializes in recreation and education, social problems, the use of leisure, and group dynamics. In addition to being active in student affairs on campus, Dr. Sessoms has served as a consultant for the Outdoor Recreation Resources Review Commission to plan for leisure use in 1970 and 2000. He has also acted as a consultant for the J. P. Kennedy, Jr. Foundation for Developing Recreation Programs for the Mentally Retarded. Outside of his academic interests, Dr. Sessoms is an accomplished amateur photographer.

NEWTON UNDERWOOD, Ph.D., 1934 (Brown University) is a Professor of Physics and Environmental Science. Before coming to U. N. C., he spent several years at Columbia University and also at Oak Ridge, Tennessee working on a gaseous diffusion project. Dr. Underwood is currently interested in radiation safety. In connection with this interest he is working in a radiation training program. This program was established by the United States Public Health Service and is a joint activity with North Carolina State College in Raleigh.

DAVID T. LAPKIN, Ph.D., 1957 (Columbia University), Professor of Economics, teaches courses in Principles of Economics, Money and Banking, and Central Banking. His specialty lies in the area of monetary economics, and he is currently writing a text on this subject. Before coming to U. N. C., Dr. Lapkin was a Financial and Business Economist at the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis. Dr. Lapkin was a faculty advisor to the Symposium in 1964, an advisor to the Undergraduate Economics Club, and in charge of the honors program for economics undergraduates. At the present time he is doing a weekly television show. Encounter.

PETER F. WALKER, Ph.D., 1958 (Vanderbilt University) is an Assistant Professor of History and Advisor to Honors Students in the General College. Dr. Walker has published several articles on military operations in the American Civil War, and his Vicksburg: A People at War was a Civil War Book Club selection. He served in the United States Marine Corps and holds the rank of major in the reserve. A Tanner Award winner, he teaches courses in American history and Modern Civilization. Presently he is interested in the abolitionists as studies in psychology and history.

WELDON THORNTON, Ph.D., 1961 (University of Texas), is Assistant Professor of English. His main field of interest is modern British fiction, specializing in D. H. Lawrence and James Joyce. He also teaches a course on the literature of the South. Dr. Thornton has published several articles on James Joyce. His future plans include taking a leave of absence during the spring semester to work on a complete allusion list for James Joyce's Ulysses.

JOHN DOUGLAS EYRE, Ph.D., 1951 (University of Michigan), Chairman of the Department of Geography, takes an active interest in urban and economic geography of the Far East. This is evinced by his many research grants to study in such areas as Japan and Malaya, by his approximately fifteen professional articles in such journals as Economic Geography and Geographical Review, and by his popularity among students as foremost in the teaching of Regional Geography of Asia. Dr. Eyre is currently concerned with growth characteristics and patterns of Japanese cities. Balancing his Oriental slant is his preoccupation with a young family of three children.

JAMES DICKSON PHILLIPS, J.D., 1948 (University of North Carolina), was recently appointed Dean of the Law School, after serving as Professor of Law since 1960. He graduated Phi Beta Kappa from Davidson College. Dean Phillips' primary interest is in the field of teaching and he continues to instruct several courses in procedural law. Currently, he is a member of the North Carolina Courts Commission which is drafting legislation to implement the 1962 constitutional amendments for reconstructing the state court system. In his leisure hours, Dean Phillips enjoys fishing and hunting.

Tension and excitement walked hand-in-hand as beautifully gowned maidens walked down the long ramp into the darkness of the hall. Smiles on nervous lips were flashed into the rows of seated numbers to nowhere, everywhere, and back. For some it was a night of loss, while others experienced the joys of winning . . . only 9 were selected from a group of 50, a queen and her court.

MARY REBECCA RHODARMER

The Queen of the 1965 Yackety Yack is a lovely southern belle from Canton, North Carolina. Becky, sponsored by her sorority, Kappa Kappa Gamma, is a junior majoring in history education. Her favorite pastimes are riding, riflery, archery, reading, ice skating. Becky holds other beauty titles including "Miss Limestone College" and "Miss Haywood County."

Stately Susan Ehringhaus, a junior from Raleigh, was sponsored by Alderman Dorm. A member of Chi Omega sorority, her plans for the future include attending law school here at the University. Her outside interests are golf, tennis, piano, and hunting.

SUSAN EHRLINGHAUS

PATTI FIELDS

Sponsored by Maverick House, vivacious Patti Fields is a freshman science major from Chapel Hill. A transfer from Oregon State, Patti is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. Her hobbies include piano, painting, and swimming.

An attractive transplant from the North, Karen was sponsored by Spencer Dorm. Her hometown is Cherry Hill, New Jersey. On campus, Karen, a pharmacy major, serves on the Yackety Yack staff, as a freshman cheerleader, a member of the University Party and the Young Republicans Club; off campus, she enjoys reading, synchronized swimming, bridge, and is a frustrated artist.

KAREN GIBBON

PAM HOOPER

This fun-loving Delta Delta Delta from Winston-Salem was sponsored by Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity. Pam is a senior majoring in math education. Varsity cheerleader, member of National Student Education Association, Carolina Sweethearts Court, Social Committee, and Gamma Beta Epsilon are but some of the extracurriculars in which she participates. Her hobbies include horseback riding and water skiing.

Statuesque Roxanne Kalb, a senior from Suffield, Connecticut, was sponsored by The Daily Tar Heel. A major in international studies, Roxanne's activities on campus include Panhellenic Council, Senior Class Social Chairman, Order of the Beanbirds, Order of the Old Lampshades, and President of Alpha Delta Pi sorority. Among her outside interests are painting, swimming, and fishing.

ROXANNE KALB

TERRY LYNNE KELLERMAN

Lovely Terry Kellerman, sponsored by Graham Dorm, is a senior math major from Arlington, Virginia. A transfer from Mary Washington College, she is interested in sewing, ice skating, modeling and computer programming.

Kappa Alpha Fraternity sponsored this charming Delta Delta Delta from Hillsboro. Zacki is a junior majoring in art. She enjoys swimming, modern dancing, and cooking. Her other talents include designing and making her clothes, and professional modeling. Zacki is also the 1964-65 Homecoming Queen.

ZACKI MURPHY

CYDNE WRIGHT

Winston Dorm sponsored pretty Cydne Wright, a senior from Greensboro. A major in American history, Cydne is a member of Chi Omega sorority. Active in extracurriculars, she is a member of Student Legislature and the Young Democrats Club. Her hobbies are piano and philosophy.

social fraternities

Although fraternities and sororities are possibly the oldest minority group at the University, they always seem to make themselves heard — especially during football season and other eventful weekends. With the first fraternity, established shortly after the War Between the States, a long line of precedents have been set establishing the groundwork for years of tradition. Shortly after the turn of the century, sororities were begun, and the “co-ed” began to set her own tradition.

Beginning above and moving clockwise, we have a few snapshots of some Greek traditions. Perhaps the oldest tradition at the University is that of the social drink. The containers seem to get bigger and, therefore, better each year. Above right, we have the fraternity man's answer to the "crazy 60's" — a continuation of the "roaring 20's" and "flighty 40's." The typical victory celebration after the game is complete only when one has a cup in hand and is lulled by the "mellow" tones of the latest combo. The next shot shows the winners of the homecoming display in the fraternity division hopes of blasting the "birds." The Heels delivered, crushing hell out of the Gamecocks. Below right, we have a "candlelight" — a ritual practiced in sororities to commemorate the "pinning" of one of the sisters to a fraternity brother.

GERMANS CLUB

The Germans Club is one of the oldest and most renowned organizations on campus. It dates back beyond 1890, and appeared in the first Yackety Yack in 1901. The purpose of the club is to bring outstanding entertainers to Carolina. This year the Fall concert was flavored with folk singing stars. The Brothers Four, a popular favorite, were complemented with the fresh faces of Ian and Sylvia who compose much of their repertoire capturing the essence of the American and French Canadian folk movement.

The membership of the Germans Club is composed of thirteen fraternities: Alpha Tau Omega, Beta Theta Pi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, Kappa Alpha, Kappa Sigma, Phi Delta Theta, Phi Gamma Delta, Pi Kappa Alpha, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Sigma Chi, Sigma Nu, St. Anthony Hall, and Zeta Psi.

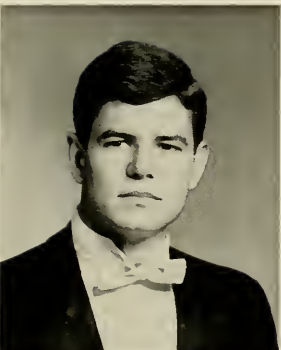

Germans Weekends are considered to be the most outstanding social events of the year, and the concert highlights parties which are held by all the fraternities.

INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL

The Interfraternity Council serves as the unifying and governing body for fraternities at Carolina. The Council is composed of the president and the elected representative from each of the twenty-three chapters on campus, and acts as the legislative branch. The I.F.C. Court, with the President and Vice-President sitting as ex-officio members, maintains a self-imposed discipline among fraternities. This body serves as the judicial branch. Under the leadership of the Executive Committee, made up of the major officers, the I.F.C. plans and coordinates all phases of fraternity life. The work of the I.F.C. is done through use of the Rush, Publicity, Greek Week, Scholarship, Rules, and Activities Committees. These groups strive to promote the lofty ideals of the entire fraternity system.

This year has been as full as any in the past. The over-riding problem was deferred rush, attempted for the first time at Carolina. It was hoped that this new method of rush would benefit the whole system. The Activities Committee, in addition to other projects, sponsored an I.F.C. Work Day on December 10, when fraternities joined in a cleanup of the entrances to Chapel Hill. The I.F.C. also helped to provide refreshments after the Christmas Carol Sing. And as it has since 1948, the Council awarded the Andrew Bershak Scholarship, worth $2,400, to a deserving student.

To encourage competition among member fraternities, the I.F.C. awards several trophies each year. These include the R.B. House Trophy for the best fraternity, the Scholarship Trophy for most improved scholarship, and the Sturm Trophy for the year's best pledge class. The competition for these awards furthers the goals and aspirations of the Inter-fraternity Council.

I.F.C. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE. Seated: Price, Martin. Standing: Wainwright, Parker, Logan.

PANHELLENIC COUNCIL

JEAN DILLIN
President

The Panhellenic Council is the governing body of the sororities. It is designed for the purpose of unifying the different areas of the campus. In carrying out this goal, Panhellenic sponsors a number of projects, including activities with Women's Residence Council, a community service project, monthly cultural programs within the individual sororities and a Christmas tree-trimming party with Graham Memorial. In addition to these campus activities, Panhellenic cooperates with the Junior Service League of Chapel Hill in supporting Christmas House.

The Council is composed of the Panhellenic Advisor, Miss Daryl Farrington, sorority presidents, sorority rush chairmen replaced after rush by pledge representatives, two representatives from the Stray Greek Organization, and an executive committee made up of members elected from each sorority.

STRAY GREEKS

The Stray Greeks Organization was founded in 1944 and is composed of sorority women whose chapters are not present on this campus. Its aims are to preserve the bonds of unity and sisterhood in sorority life, to stimulate cooperation between sorority and dormitory life and to serve its members as a service and social organization.

Each year the Stray Greeks take over the responsibility of the Panhellenic Post Office during sorority rush. Following rush, the Panhellenic pledge picnic is held to honor the new pledge classes. Swap night, Panhellenic cultural programs, and eating in the various sorority houses are three other events throughout the year. The Stray Greeks participate in fund raising as well as service projects, social events, various campus activities and the Women's Athletic Association.

PHI GAMMA DELTA

In the catacombs of South Building, the prophets of gloom again roll their eyes heavenward and shake their bearded heads at the mysterious happenings on 108 W. Cameron. In animal misery, they crawl the floors and retch forth pools of filthy hate for the hideous creatures that plague their daily existence. NO WONDER!

Led by the hard-slugging, swift-punching welterweight contender from West Greensboro, the king of Atlanta and our man from Appalachia fall swiftly into line. Moses, Wilkins, and Don "I date six nights a week" Justice pull up the suffering house average — and that's not grades! "The Romper Room" is now telecast nightly from the third floor, despite the protests of scholar Maddison. Toe-Jam composes poetry into the wee hours, as antiseptic bombs emerge to cover the stench of his wall-to-wall socks and underwear. Nehru pawns his Koran at the Intimate, and returns with "Conscience of a Conservative." Willie "post graduate" Hobson leads the food-grumblers. Scherr leads the athletic-grumblers, and Smith leads the just-plain-grumblers. Parrott forsakes his red chair to open a weekend mining business in Danville. Suuuuuuuuuure!!!! . . . Smooth bat-god, damn your eyes and skip to the ping-pong ball — it looks like more of the same at the Fiji house.

No wonder; look at those gums!

Officers are secret and only those in public contact are revealed.

Football team returns early for rigorous training sessions. Harper comes too, bearing a piece of the true cross, but no one asks him to play. Wanted: One pocketful of miracles. St. A's forsake madras bee-hive in favor of Sarah Lawrence, Vassar, Bennett, and Smith on Hammer's promise. Ute . . . Zoobie . . . Plu . . . Drummond . . . Clit . . . Ginder . . . R. B. . . and the great Hairy Kiss. Bobo hoses window becoming first Martian to out-ralph Ralph. Boke invites sister for beach weekend as Higgins condenses out of fog and onto the floor. Who else in my pledge class wants to go that way asks the clown obligingly. Stud-dish. rip. and tear. Hawthorne snakes Tri-Delts with a new twist. What's a literary fraternity? The Jolly Green Giant two-steps through Chez Antoine as Reddo tickles the ivories nightly. Symonds gets V.I.R. in a two-seater (who's she?). Happiness is your son pledging the right sorority. Higgins, Minard, Keating, Minis, and Isenburg rush Tri Delt. hard. with qualified failure: second floor middle window. Frank hands out cigars and gets burned, like Howie's TV dinners. D'Lemma Club in full operation as is Reynolds' garage. Refugees from interior of Georgia. Horse vs. motorcycle, no contest . . .

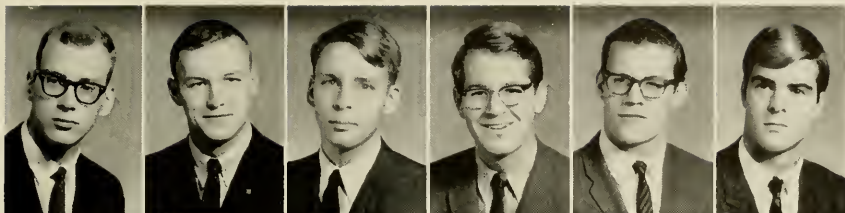

Through Africa with gun and camera . . . Dr. Dusenbury, I pre-sume. Ridiculously simple, but aren't we all. Macadid, but don't we all?

SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON

Perhaps the circus came to town complete with its own Negroid ringmaster, who also did an on-campus act as Super Puppet. The center ring was given 4-star Jimmy Light and his Neck-ed Show supported admirably by the good captain in a brilliant depiction of freshman liquor drinking. A minor accident occurred when Batman and Robin endeavored an intricate aerial maneuver and had to spend the remainder of the evening in the Chapel Hill Municipal Hotel. Between major weekend acts Hooking Hud Beattle offered spectator entertainment on a regular and alcoholic basis while genial gin tried to stop the Chi O Tornado with Scotch and cross-body blocks. J. B. was seen riding his red pony: throughout the entire performance was the appearance of the Mad Wolf and Bo Bubbles with dates. The Coach Nunnally Traveling Mattress Show never played in town, but the remarkable Slim Torque Rushee Roadshow did. Shortly thereafter the lights went out and everyone went home.

Chi's return to find Murphy honeymooning at Eden Rock. Some ominous guys return while others leave. Mac relieves sinus problems and gets engaged. Louie quotes Shakespeare to Spero. King "Jo-Jo" Kong hawks the tube by himself. Freejob draws on Chi dates. The Bird plays golf and eats chicken with Craven. Glider combs kinks and trades boogie shoes for Cowjobs. Miles' Pitt-pinned honey gets educated. Tree, P. W.'ed, makes Phi Bete. Johnston sends Rat packing to Tahoe, but lets Dicky-Bird in. Bryant renounces southern allegiance. Rollo greases-up to run the house. Rug uses Radar to combat the house kink epidemic. Bad Gas slops the hogs at the barn. Zorba heads the operation at the Cave. Stratton gets books from home but still eats fish. Deano continues as Chi alarm clock. Coops, Kesler, and DTH lizard star in Playmaker production of The Third Man. Dahle quits visiting Chi House for more time in the bag. Tim came back to wreck his 14th and 15th. Greasy now packs poodle pudding instead of Patsy's.

MONOGRAM CLUB

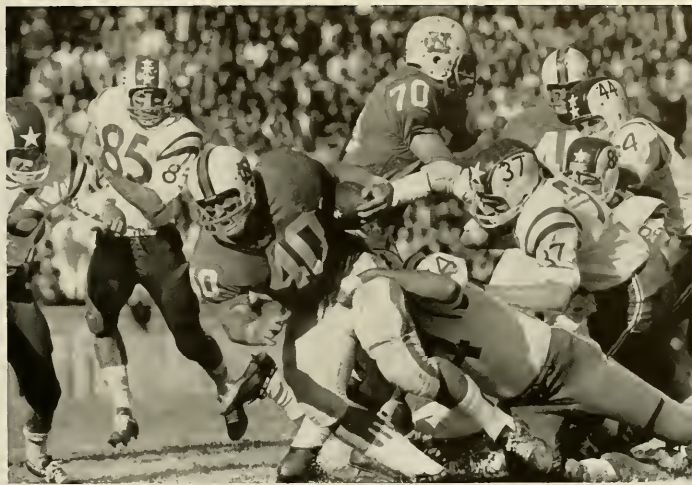

The University Monogram Club, composed of all varsity lettermen, continues to serve the University as it has in previous years. Some of the outstanding contributions of the club were going to the Cerebral Palsy home at Christmas, inviting high school athletes to U. N. C.'s football games, and a scholarship fund. The club also sponsors the annual varsity-alumni football game.

The Monogram Club has its headquarters in Woollen Gym. The room is equipped with a pool table, television, radio, and phonograph for the use of all members. The walls are covered with pictures of past outstanding sports figures of the University.

The Monogram Club represents many fine ideals on campus and is a club in which the University can take great pride.

GREAT MOMENTS

Football is not just a game which is to be won or lost — it is more a way of life. In this way of life, such words as teamwork, faith, and endurance have meaning well beyond their now casual usage. This year's football season has personified each of these virtues.

Cooperation and teamwork have always been the key for any successful team. The Tar Heels learned their lesson well from the hard, painful, repetitions days of practice. Michigan State, always a powerful Big Ten contender, was stopped cold by a team which was willing to taste the bitterness of flying turf, and to put body and soul into every action. The offensive line, in a concerted effort, opened up hole after hole for the oncoming backs, and the rugged defensive team helped each other out on every play. Teamwork was the key; victory, the reward.

Clemson was our next lesson. Coach Hickey's team had never beaten the Tigers. It was the faith which they had in themselves, their coach, and their school which gave to Carolina this sweet victory.

The Duke game was the last contest of the season. It was a long, hard season with many bright spots, and many disappointments. Carolina fans knew that they always had the material to beat any team. The question was, would the Big Blue endure the physical pain which was necessary for success? The answer came quickly. Carolina footballers had a great day. Hanburger grew in awesomeness with each tackle. Richie Zarro repeatedly gave a great second effort to get his man. Eddie Kesler battered through Duke's defensive unit time and time again. And once again the Big Blue proved they could play football in its finest tradition.

Coach Hickey ponders strategy during an intense moment of play.

A five and five record is not a terribly fine season for the great material we had. However, there were some fine days which Carolina footballers will never forget. It is always nice to win the game, but what is learned from the sport of football is really the purpose of the contest.

N. C. STATE 14 CAROLINA 13

The favored Tar Heels opened the 1964 season with N. C. State before a hometown crowd of 45,000. But an ever alert Wolfpack turned two pass interceptions into touchdowns and an upset victory. An attempt for a two point conversion failed with forty-eight seconds remaining in the game and the Tar Heels were left on the short end of the score.

After a scoreless first period, State end Tony Galmant intercepted a Danny Talbott pass and ran 45 yards for a touchdown, giving the Wolfpack a 7-0 halftime lead. Carolina came roaring back in the third period and climaxed a 75-yard drive with a nine yard run by Ken Willard. Dave Braine's extra point tied the game 7-7. The Wolfpack intercepted a second Talbott pass and scored two plays later on a 38-yard jaunt by Falgarano to lead 14-7. Stopped twice by the Wolfpack defense, the Tar Heels completed an 80-yard drive with a touchdown pass from Talbott to Willard. The pass for two points was batted down, leaving State with a 14-13 lead. Carolina recovered a Wolfpack fumble, but the clock ran out before the Tar Heels could put a scoring threat together.

Hard-driving Ken Willard goes over for six points as the Tar Heels cut State's lead to one.

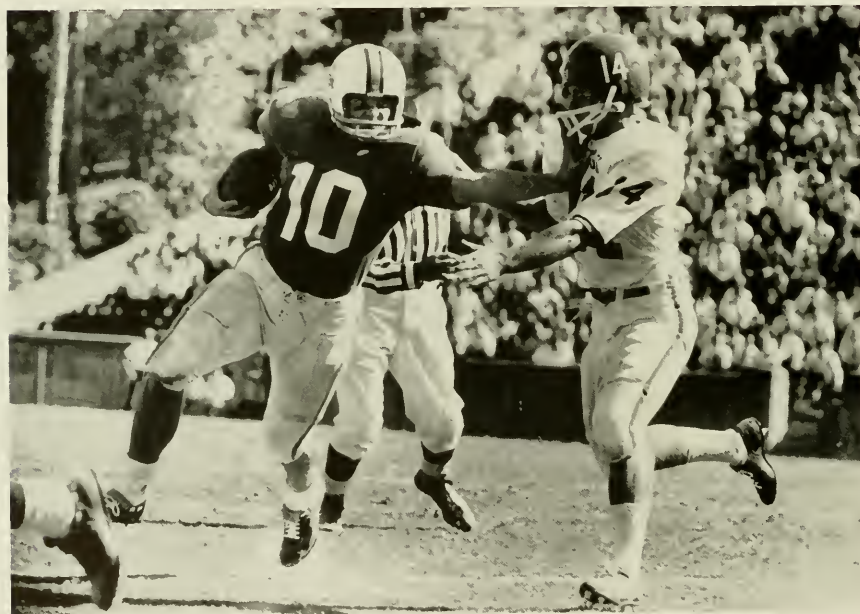

Carolina's tough defensive unit takes a well-deserved pause as the referee removes an uninvited guest from the field.

Sophomore Danny Talbott led an impressive looking Carolina to its first victory ever over a Big Ten opponent before 40,000 happy fans. The win, the Tar Heels' first of the season, was sweet revenge for the defeats of the past two years at the hands of the Spartans. Carolina displayed a powerful offense and a defense that allowed Michigan only four first downs in the first half.

THE TAR HEELS (21) TAKE THE BIG TEN (15) TO TASK

The first Tar Heel touchdown came early in the second period on a sneak play by quarterback Talbott. Dave Braine's kick gave the Tar Heels a 7-0 halftime lead. Midway through the third period, Carolina climaxed a 69-yard drive with a run by Ken Willard. A pass interception deep in Spartan territory provided the Tar Heels with another scoring opportunity early in the fourth period and Talbott scored his second touchdown of the day on a one-yard plunge. Braine's kick was good and gave the Tar Heels a 21-0 lead. At this point Michigan exploded, scoring two touchdowns in six minutes. But fierce defensive play plus two pass interceptions deep in Tar Heel territory enabled the Heels to withstand the Spartan attack and capture a hard-earned victory.

A WAKE FOR THE DEACS

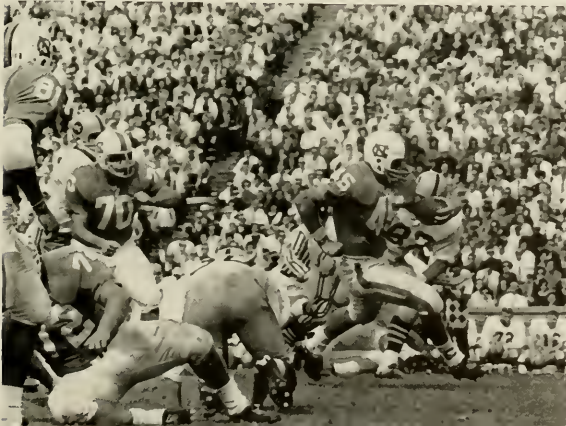

The undefeated Deacons of Wake Forest were rudely halted by a Carolina team that could do little wrong as the Tar Heels posted their second home victory. A vaunted Deacon offense made little headway against a Tar Heel defense that permitted only one first down in the first half, and only six in the entire game. An equally powerful Tar Heel offense scored in the first period on a six-yard jaunt by sophomore Danny Talbott, giving Carolina a 7-0 lead. The Deacons were unable to move against a Tar Heel defense that permitted them to cross midfield only once in the first half. The second Carolina touchdown came on a fourth-down run by Ken Willard as he twisted over right guard for the score.

Players listen attentively as on-the-spot instructions come down from the stands.

Eddie Kesler's gigantic form gains momentum as he lunges through a hugh gap in the Deacon line.

Late in the second period an intercepted Wake Forest pass led to Max Chapman's 39-yard field goal, promoting the Tar Heels to a 17-0 halftime lead. The Deacon defense was stronger in the second half and held the Tar Heels to only one touchdown. With 1:40 left in the game, Talbott passed to Ronnie Jackson for a 14-yard scoring play. Braine's kick was blocked, but the Tar Heels were victorious by the score of 23-0.

As Ken Willard gives protection, Max Chapman ties the game with a 25-yard field goal in the third period.

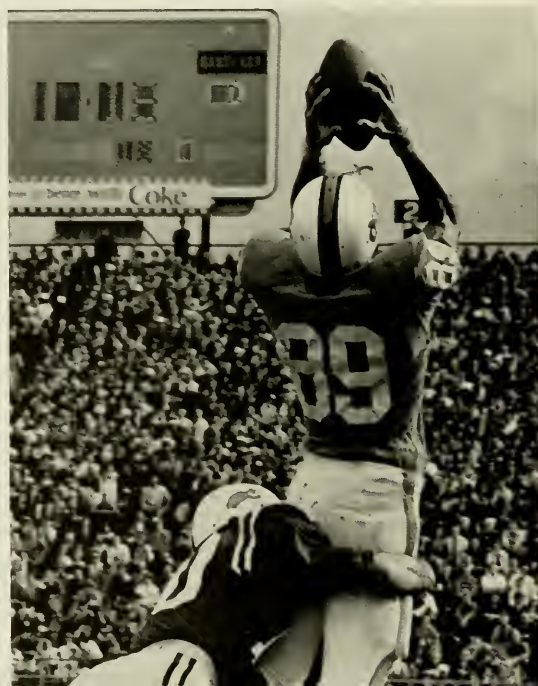

L. S. U. 20 — CAROLINA 3

The Tar Heels journeyed to Baton Rouge to do battle with the Tigers, but injuries, penalties and just plain bad luck coupled with L.S.U.'s overpowering strength proved to be more than the Tar Heels could cope with. The undefeated Tigers had their hands full for more than two periods, managing only a field goal which gave them a halftime score of 3-0. The Tar Heels tied the game on a 25-yard field goal early in the third period. However, the three-team strategy of the Tigers gradually wore the Heels down, and L.S.U. posted two touchdowns and a field goal to chalk up their third victory over the Tar Heels in four games.

MARYLAND 10 — CAROLINA 9

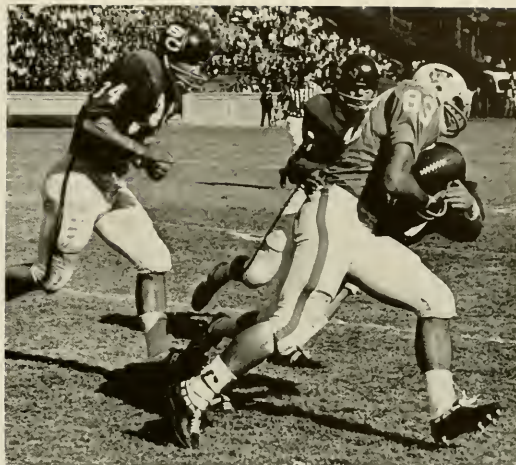

A visit to the Oyster Bowl left unhappy memories for the Tar Heels as a gambling Maryland team seemed to hold all the right cards. With the score 10-7 in favor of the Terrapins, the Tar Heels had a first down at the Maryland 4-yard line, but made little headway against the Maryland line. Four plays later, Maryland took the ball over on their own 1-yard line, later allowing the Tar Heels a safety to obtain a better punting position in a gamble which paid off to the tune of a 10-9 victory.

Bob Hume makes a spectacular catch against the Terrapins in the Oyster Bowl.

U.S.C. HALTED AT HOMECOMING

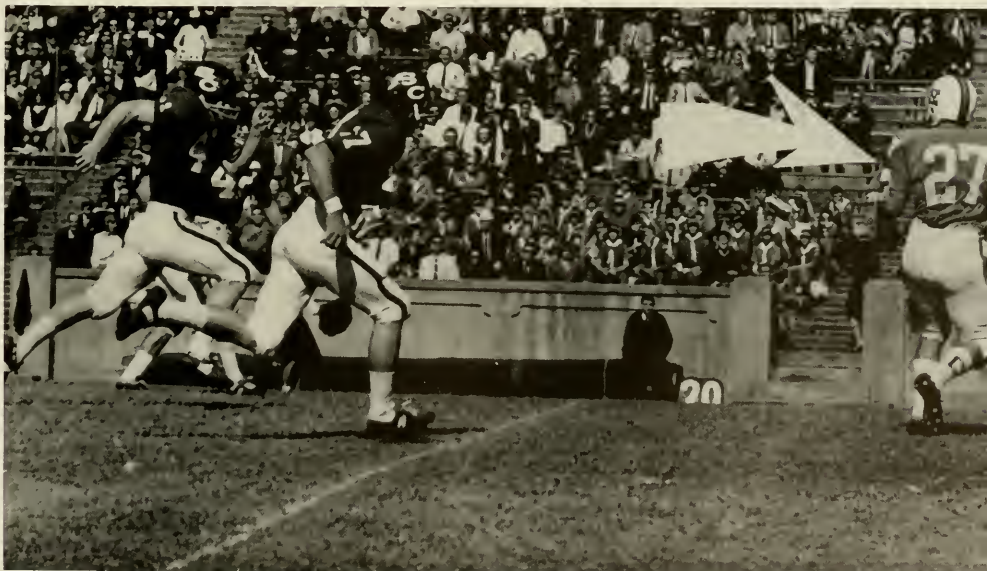

Homecoming found the Tar Heels completely in command as they defeated the Gamecocks before 36,000 fans. Combining an offense that gained 446 yards and a defense that held U.S.C. to only one first down in the first half, the Tar Heels won the eighth game in their last ten meetings with the Gamecocks. The Tar Heels scored early in the first period, moving 69 yards in four plays and scoring on a 35-yard pass from Black to Jackson. Later in the period Dave Braine added a 21-yard field goal. The Tar Heels' second score came with 24 seconds left in the half, as Gary Black skirted right end for the score that gave Carolina a 17-0 halftime lead. The Tar Heels scored the first time they had possession of the ball in the third period as Black tallied his second score of the day. Seniors Black, Willard, and Jackson were outstanding in their last Homecoming game, leading Carolina to its third victory of the season.

Speedster Ronnie Jackson is way out in front of the Gamecock defense as he grabs a 35-yard pass from Black and goes in for the score.

GEORGIA 24 CAROLINA 8

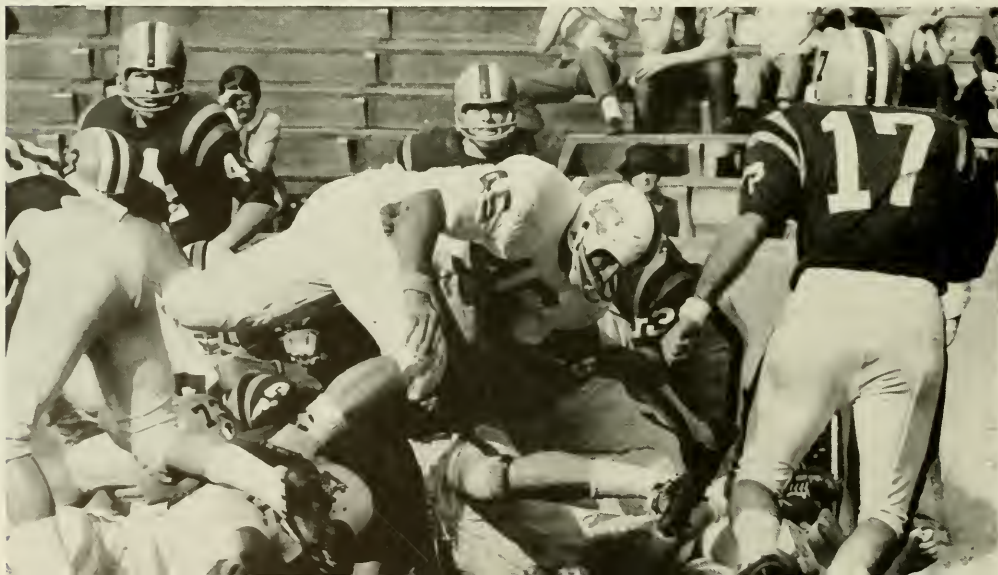

It was a sad day in Athens as the Georgia Bulldogs stymied Carolina's ground attack and ran through the Tar Heels' defense for a 24-8 victory. Georgia's immovable line forced the Tar Heels to take to the air and the Heels completed 20 of 35 passes for 207 yards. The Tar Heels' only score came late in the fourth period on a 10-yard smash by halfback Ken Willard that capped a 72-yard drive. Black's pass to Axselle was good for the two-point conversion that ended Tar Heel scoring for the afternoon. The victory gave Georgia a 13-12 lead in the series which started in 1895.

THE TAR HEELS PUT THE TIGERS IN THEIR TANK

On a sunny day in "Death Valley," the Tar Heels spoiled Clemson's Homecoming and recorded their first victory ever on the Tiger home field. The Tar Heels matched an alert defense with a balanced offense to completely overwhelm the Tigers. A first period Clemson fumble quickly became a Carolina touchdown on a one-yard run by Gary Black. After stopping the Tigers cold, the Tar Heels marched 60 yards in fourteen plays and scored on a plunge by Eddie Kesler. A Tiger fumble midway in the third period gave Carolina possession, and moments later Ken Willard scored the Tar Heels' third touchdown on a one-yard run. Kicker Dave Braine missed his second extra point of the season, but a safety added two more points to the Tar Heel total. The Heels last score came late in the fourth period on a 69-yard pass from Gary Black to Ronnie Jackson.

Fullback Eddie Kesler scores Carolina's second touchdown to put the Tar Heels ahead 14-0 in the first period.

THE CAVALIERS SQUEAK PAST THE TAR HEELS

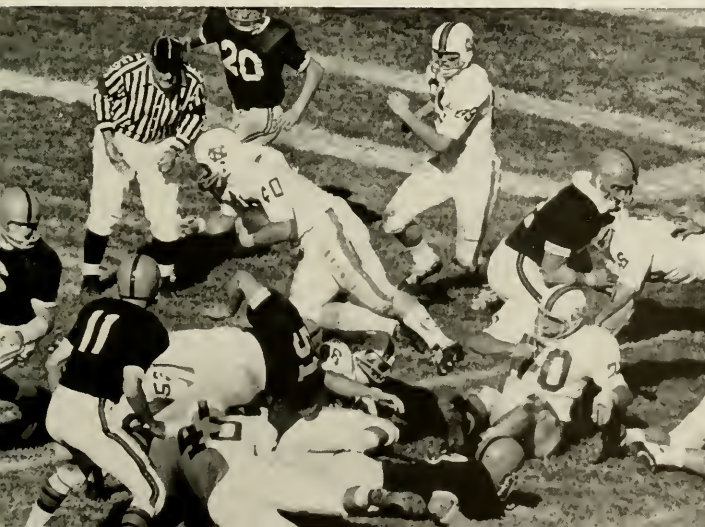

The Cavaliers snapped a six year losing streak to the Tar Heels as they won a free-scoring Homecoming game in Charlottesville. The exciting game saw the lead change hands four times and the score tied three times before the final outcome was decided.

Virginia scored first, but the Tar Heels came right back as Ken Willard capped an 80-yard drive with a diving touchdown. The Tar Heels took the lead early in the second period on a 39-yard pass from Black to Jackson, but the Cavaliers stormed back to tie the score. A 30-yard pass from Gary Black to Bill Darnall gave the Tar Heels a 21-14 half-time lead. On the third period's only score, Virginia capped an 82-yard drive for a touchdown. The Cavaliers went ahead early in the fourth period, but couldn't contain the Tar Heel attack, as Gary Black passed 15 yards to Darnall for Carolina's fourth score. The extra point failed, giving Virginia a one-point lead. The Cavaliers increased it to four points on a 43-yard field goal with 1:45 remaining in the game. The Tar Heel passing attack sputtered, and the Cavaliers wrapped up their first victory over the Tar Heels since 1953.

Hard-driving Ken Willard soars over the goal line as he scores the Tar Heels' first touchdown of the afternoon.

VICTORY WAS SWEET

It was "THE" game of the year, and Seniors Ken Willard and Eddie Kesler won it for the Tar Heels before 45,500 cheering fans. The powerful Carolina running attack plowed through the Dook line for 315 yards while the Tar Heel defense held the Blue Devils for a rushing total of 58 yards. But the day belonged to the halfbacks as Kesler and Willard ran for 279 of the Tar Heels' 315 yards.

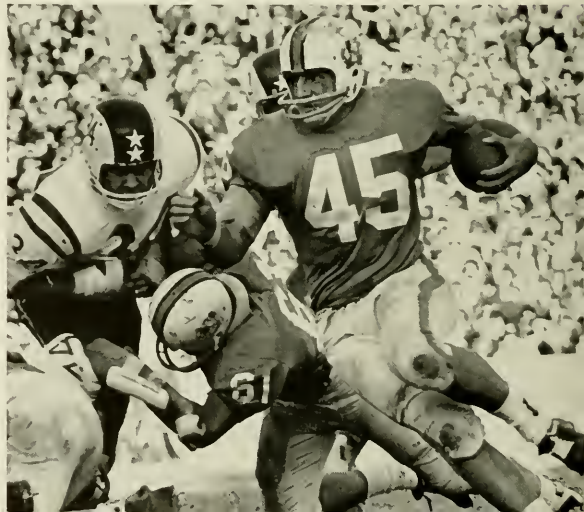

Kesler set a U.N.C. rushing record, breaking the 1946 mark set by Charlie Justice. Willard's 107 yards enabled him to become the second Carolina player in history to amass more than 2,000 yards on the ground. His three year total of 2,041 is second only to Justice's four year total of 2,814.

Gary Black hands off to Eddie Kesler behind the beautiful blocking of Carolina's forward line.

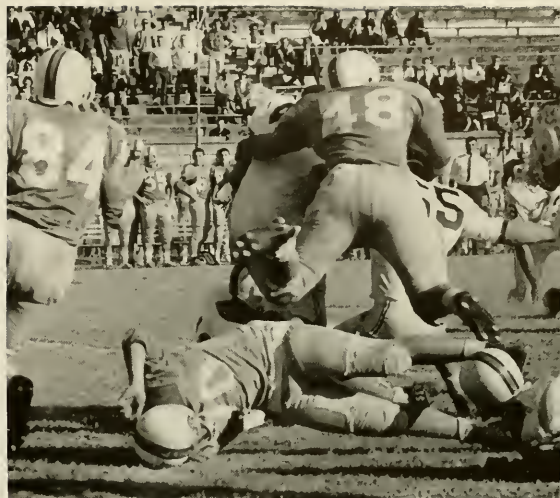

The Tar Heels took a first period lead as Willard rammed through for the score. On a nine-yard pass from Black to Axelle, the Tar Heels scored for the second time and gained a 14-3 halftime lead. Following Dook's score early in the second half, the Tar Heels drove 72 yards in four plays for their third score. Carolina held off Dook threats following a fourth period score and wrapped up the victory in the fiftieth meeting between the two teams.

Charging fullback Eddie Kesler is shown as he gains some of his 172 yards against the Blue Devils.

TAR BABIES HAVE AN UNDEFEATED SEASON

The 1964 edition of the "Tar Babies" had their first undefeated season in many years. Under the direction of Coach George Barclay and his able assistants Tom Cabe, Barry Westfall, and Gene Westfall, the young squad of 44 boys indicated that they would be of great help to the varsity in the coming years. The season began with a 20-14 come-from-behind win over the Maryland "Turtles." The game showed the sensational Tar Baby defense led by linebackers Bill Spain and Mike Horvat, and the explosive offense featuring quarterback Tim Karrs passing to Charlie Carr and Len Duncan. Next, the Tar Babies defeated the N. C. State "Wolflets" 26-0 in the annual Shrine Bowl game in Raleigh. Many of the fans were greatly impressed with the fine running of David Riggs and Jim Masino. The third game was one of the toughest on the Tar Baby schedule, and the defensive team had to put up a goal line stand more than once to halt the "Deaclets" from Winston-Salem. Jim Vota and Joe Bailey bolstered the secondary in the 14-12 victory. The game with Virginia was played in a sea of mud, and neither team could do very much. A key pass interception by Jack Davenport helped the Tar Babies to a 14-0 win. The last game of the season was the sweetest for the players and the fans: Tar Babies 30—Blue Imps 28. Going into the fourth quarter, the Tar Babies held a 30-7 lead, but a fired-up Dook team narrowed the margin to only two points. Their try for a two-point conversion was stopped by the Tar Baby defense to give them the victory. All in all, the successful season points to a bright future for Carolina football.

HARRIERS TAKE STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

An 8-1 season plus the State Championship title is a record to be proud of, but the 1964 season was a letdown for Coach Joe Hilton's fleetfooted team. The U. N. C. Harriers were turned back by strong Maryland runners in their bid for an unprecedented fifth straight A. C. C. title. Injuries to senior star Charlie Little kept him from reaching peak form as Co-Captain Jim Meade (2nd in A. C. C.) and Art Maillet (7th in A. C. C.) led the Tar Heels, with Senior Co-Captain Jerry Smith, junior Bill Janowitz, and sophomores Trip MacPherson, Drummond Bell, and Eddie Daw adding depth to the team.

The Harriers opened the season by swamping South Carolina 17-40, and Georgia Tech 19-46. As the season progressed they took perfect wins (15-50) over North Carolina State and Duke. Other wins included Wake Forest, East Carolina, Clemson, and Virginia. The only losses came at the feet of Maryland, 25-30 in a regular season dual meet, and 45-72 in the Conference Championship Meet. Though placing second in the A. C. C., the Harriers were victorious in a post-season meet against nine North Carolina college teams and once again took State Championship laurels.

The 1964 Carolina Soccer team had a fine season. The "booters" took second place in the A. C. C. standings, their only conference loss being to Maryland's undefeated conference champions. The Tar Heels defeated North Carolina State and Virginia, and tied Dook in other conference action. The team's only other loss was to perennial soccer power Navy. The squad tied Bridgeport, which turns out a good soccer team every year, and gained victories over V. P. I., Pfeiffer, and Belmont Abbey, giving them a final record of 5-2-2.

Top scorers for the Tar Heel booters were Jackie Writer with seven points, Edwin Okoroma with six, and Jim Talbot and John Loud, both with four points. Writer also had the most points for a single game (4). John Loud was singled out for a place on the All-South soccer team. Considering the fact that many of the team's starters were sophomores, Carolina's soccer future looks quite good.

BASKETBALL

If one were to look at Carolina's record this year, he would quickly pass by the Tar Heels as just another good college basketball team. However, many times the won and lost column does not tell the whole story.

This year Carolina had one of the most powerful and formidable teams in the nation. One of the top professional draft choices, Billy "the Kid" Cunningham, could do things with a basketball which will never be seen again. He would be all over the court, bringing the ball up, shooting, rebounding, and scraping. Sophomore sensational Bob (Bobby-Lou) Lewis was our second man in the one-two scoring punch. Together, he and "the Kid" would average over forty-five points a game. Bob, also, was as versatile a basketballer as a coach could ever hope for. To back up this awesome duo we find Ian "the Shot" Morrison, Ray Hassel, and Tom Gauntlett three fine guards. Mark Mirken, Bob Bennet, and Ray Respass were constantly adding their assistance in the forecourt.

Carolina basketball fans have had the rare opportunity to watch such capable talent perform on the same court. Our wins over Vanderbilt, Kentucky, and Duke (it is always a thrill to beat Duke), all Top Ten Teams, have proved that the Tar Heels can play ball with the best. Chapel Hill fans have received some great thrills from our B-ballers this year. Our courtmen have played some good ball, and they have deserved each and every one of their wins.

DOLPHINS SURGE TO EARLY SEASON SUCCESSES

Swimming at Carolina has come a long way since 1939 when the university lost the first intercollegiate swimming meet in the school's history to Virginia by a 45-30 score. Since that time the Tar Heels have met thirty different opponents and compiled a record of 209 wins against 37 losses. This season the tankmen under Coach Pat Earey appear to be reaching for higher goals as the mid-season mark is passed.

Five All-American swimmers, Co-Captains Harrison Merrill, Davis Roberts, juniors Fred Lipp, Rick Forum, and John Sheldon returned from the 1963-1964 team that defeated every A. C. C. opponent, finished third in the Eastern Regionals, and was ranked sixth nationally. The biggest loss from last season was three time All-American Thompson Mann. Mann was last year's co-captain who went on to win a gold medal in the 1964 Olympics, setting a world record in the 100 meters backstroke. The addition of several talented sophomores to the team, including nationally-ranked Pete Worthen, has eased this loss, but the Tar Heels still remain somewhat weak in depth.

The U. N. C. swimmers have gotten off to a fine start this season, compiling a 9-1 record through the first semester. This spring should see the Heels once again in the National Championships.

GRAPPLERS

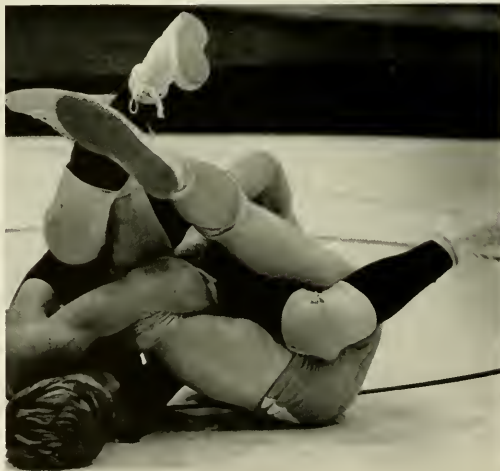

The 1964-1965 Carolina wrestling team was all even at 3-3, having meets remaining with West Virginia, Duke, V. M. I., Maryland, and the A. C. C. and N. C. A. A. Tournament when the Yack went to press. Up to date they had defeated Pfeiffer 15-14, St. Andrews 21-13, and N. C. State 21-8. Losses were to Virginia 16-14, Washington and Lee 23-10, and V. P. I. 24-5. The grapplers tied Davidson 16-16.

The wrestling team was captained by Russ Simmons and Ken Furr, both fine senior wrestlers. Among U. N. C.'s top wrestlers were Roy Hagerty with a 3-0-1 record, and Bill Johnson with a 4-1 record. Except for the two captains and Elliott Dworin (3-2-1), the team was composed of juniors and sophomores. Thus, Carolina wrestling looks good for next year.

Verlendan dominates his opponent.

"Let me out!"

BASEBALLERS COP CONFERENCE CROWN

The 1965 Tar Heel baseball team will be doing some rebuilding after losing some of last year's big names. Along with 9-0 pitcher Bill Haywood the Tar Teels will have to do without the services of Ken Willard and Eddie Kesler, both of whom signed pro football contracts which left them ineligible to participate under conference rules. The Heels were 24-7 overall last year, and their 14-0 conference record marked the first time that a conference team had completed its schedule without a loss. A. C. C. baseball "Coach-of-the-Year" Walter Rabb says he has a stronger pitching staff this year than his championship team. Many of his fine infielders are returning and if the Tar Heels can get some batting power perhaps the 1965 team will eclipse the excellent record of its predecessor.

Despite the graduation of such outstanding performers as Bob Bennet, Tom Clark, and Mick Street, North Carolina's 1964-1965 season should be outstanding. This is mainly due to the presence of one of Carolina's best sprinting duos ever, in the persons of Jon Levin and Dale White, and also to the return of a powerful crew of distance men led by veterans Art Maillet, Jim Meade, and co-captain Charlie Little.

A good coach reaps his rewards.

U.N.C. NETS EASTERN CROWN

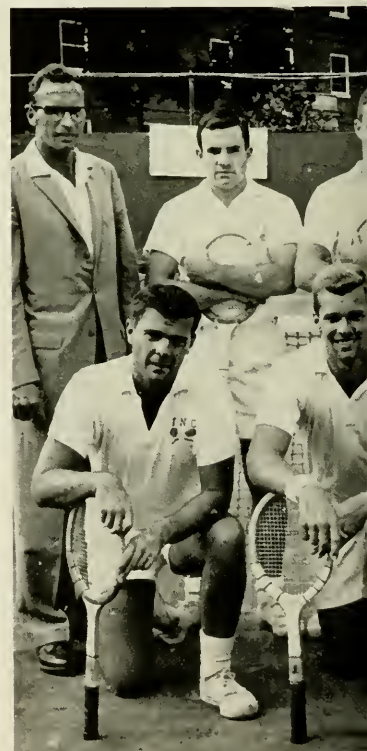

Winning tennis is a long-standing tradition at Carolina and the 1964 team was no exception. The Tar Heel netters breezed to a 16-2 regular season record and captured the A. C. C. and the Eastern crowns. The only losses were at the hands of Indiana (4-5) in the season opener and Maryland (4-5) in conference play.

Top players George Sokol, Charlie Schaffer, Pete Myers, and Ted Hoehn were lost by graduation, but Coach Don Skakle expects this year's team to be as strong as ever. Leading the netters this spring will be Captain O. H. Parrish, senior Jim Talbot, and junior Ken Oettinger. The success of the season will depend upon sophomores from last year's undefeated (11-0) freshman team. Expected to turn in top performances are Bronson Van Wyck and Nat West, though there are several other potential first-rate players.

Tennis at Carolina this spring should be more attractive than ever with a schedule including eighteen home games. Carolina will be out to improve its total tennis record which now stands at 636-75-9, and Coach Skakle will be looking for his seventh straight A. C. C. Championship.

Three-time singles champion George Sokol and his amazingly accurate forehand.

First row: Rich Henderson, Keith Stoneman, Bitsy Harrison, Charlie Shaffer, O. H. Parrish. Second row: Coach Skakle, Kirby Jones, Ted Hoehn, George Sokol, Sam Applegate.

A smashing serve by Ted Hoehn.

Coach Ed Kenny and Captain Les Fleisher

GOLF

The U. N. C. golf team had a 10-3-1 record in 1964 to chalk up their 25th consecutive winning season. Among their biggest wins were victories over Ohio University, N. C. State, and arch-rival Duke.

Returning this year is last year's top man Skip Tucker, along with four other lettermen, Eddie Hoopes, Les Fleisher, Tommy Arnold, and John Baldwin, giving Kenny the nucleus of another winning team. Top prospects from last spring's freshman team are Pete Chanin, Stan Thompson, and David Owen.

LACROSSE

Coach Conny Steele looks forward to a greatly improved team in his second season as U. N. C.'s lacrosse coach. Last year's only victory was an especially sweet one since it came over Duke in a 14-0 shutout. This year he has the freshman team that defeated the varsity last year, and he also has some outstanding varsity players returning, one of whom, Harvey Stanley, was nominated for lacrosse All-American.

CAROLINA ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Student Athletic Council was established by the Student Legislature in 1959, to serve as a co-ordinating body for athletic matters. The chairman of the council is the President of the Carolina Athletic Association, and the other twelve members represent various athletic-oriented student organizations, as well as representatives from the legislative and executive branches of Student Government.

The major project of the S. A. C. is planning the Homecoming Weekend. This year it was bigger and better than ever, with an elaborate beauty queen contest at the Carolina Inn, the first Homecoming Pep Rally, and a colorful halftime ceremony at the football game.

Another big project this year was a "Welcome to Carolina" greeting to visiting football and basketball teams by the twenty-one lovely Carolina Sweethearts. These girls, chosen by the council on the basis of beauty and personality, were instrumental in Carolina victories since they gave visiting players something to think about other than the big game.

All projects of the S. A. C. are left to the discretion and initiative of the council, and periodic reports are made to the Student Legislature.

Pam Hooper becomes emotionally involved.

CHEERLEADERS

Carolina's 1964-1965 cheerleaders deserve a great deal of credit for the manner in which they enthusiastically led the students in support of Tar Heel teams. No matter what the score, the teams — and the cheerleaders — never gave up, and they commanded the respect and admiration of students and alumni for their efforts. Carolina support for their teams and Tar Heel spirit were never better, and this was due in part to the other activities of the cheerleading squad. Pep rallies, bonfires, and parades all played a part in building enthusiasm for contests at Kenan Stadium and Woollen Gym. Despite their many activities, the squad will probably be remembered best for urging the teams on with a loud "Give 'em hell Heels!!"

Carolina's cheerleaders in action: Dave Feher, Judy Allen, Jack Young, Judy Tucker, Tom Gruhen, Priscilla Patterson, Judy Fleming, Myrtie Moon Bilbro, Lew Gikow, John Spell.

Many hours of practice are rewarded by precision marching.

UNIVERSITY BAND PLAYS ON

An elaborate maneuver helps to make the halftime an enjoyable part of a football afternoon.

Director John Yesulaitis is escorted onto the field by one of Kenan Stadium's inevitable dogs.

U. N. C. BAND

The University Marching Band, under the direction of (Major) John Yesulaitis, is composed of approximately one hundred musicians, plus four majorettes. The Marching Tar Heels serve as musical representatives of the University and present halftime entertainment during home football games. In addition, this past fall, the band performed at the Oyster Bowl in Norfolk, Virginia. At the Duke game, the performance and music of the band was seen and heard by millions on regional television.

Other performances of the band included representing the University as the official band for Founder's Day, the fall dedication of the North Carolina State House, and the Governor's Inauguration in January.

The Concert Band is composed of skilled musicians and spends its time in the study and performance of the best in concert music. The Pep Band plays for the Tar Heel basketball games.

Each fall and spring, all interested musicians are invited by the Band Department to try out for a position in one of the various Tar Heel Bands or instrumental groups.

The band presents a memorable sight as they conclude their halftime activities by playing "Hark the Sound."

LAMBDA OF KAPPA EPSILON

MARY LOU JOHNSON
President

Kappa Epsilon is a national professional fraternity for women students in pharmacy. It was founded on May 13, 1921 at Iowa State University. Lambda Chapter was begun at the University of North Carolina in 1940. The purposes are to stimulate a desire for high scholarship among its members, to foster a professional consciousness, and to provide a bond of lasting loyalty, interest, and friendship. The fraternity takes pride in its members throughout the nation who are leaders in the pharmaceutical profession.

ALPHA TAU OF ALPHA KAPPA PSI

Alpha Kappa Psi, America's first and largest fraternity, was founded nationally at New York University in 1904. The local chapter was established in 1925. The colors are blue and gold, and the flower is the yellow rose.

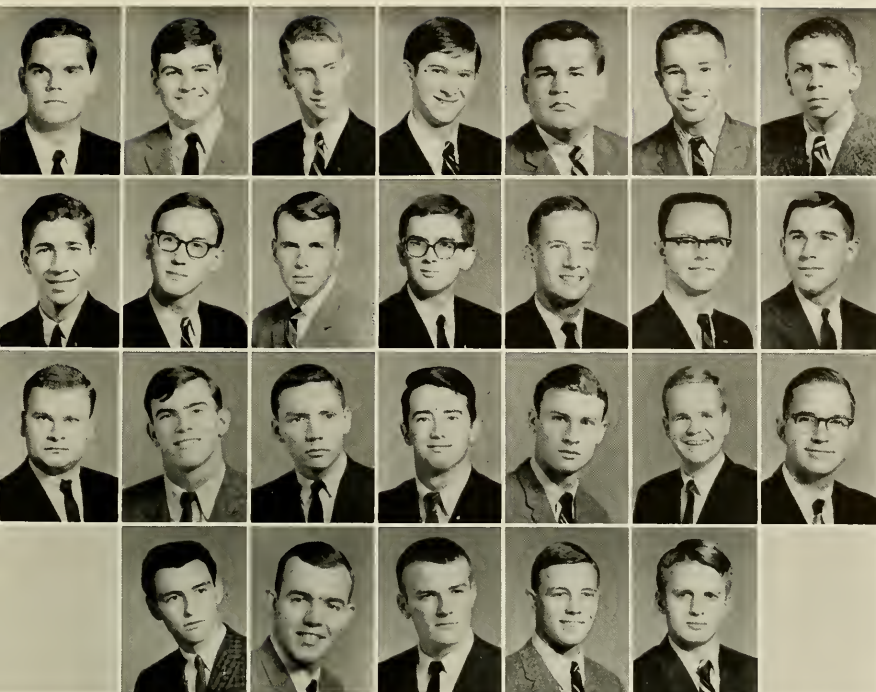

The year begins with hungover cavortings of the Pad, splash parties at Clearwater, rebel rousing at Atlanta, and various beachcombing. First party finds Harris seeking a place for his toys, while Komo adapts to "21" color tube, Altman & Keen entertain "cross the street" guest as Mouthpiece sends pledges to retrieve lost car . . . sore feet from Yanceyville . . . Kappa Psi Pharmaceutical Fraternity was founded in 1879. This, the Beta Xi Chapter, was established at the University of North Carolina in 1915. Membership in the fraternity is limited to pharmacy students of good character, who have proven scholarship ability and who have a wholesome college spirit. The fraternity flower is the red carnation and the colors are scarlet and cadet grey.

organizations

There are many memories of G.M.: the combo parties after the games, the dances in the Rendezvous Room, the hurried rush to meetings, the constant shuffle of people upstairs, the whirl of the print shop, and the click of billiard balls. But behind this relaxed, always-visible side of the Student Union, there is much hard work in committee meetings and in the Student Government offices. The publications are all bustling and noisy with typing, conversation, and work. All this is our Carolina Student Union. The noble structure will not sleep with the sun: it will be awake late into the night.

GRAHAM MEMORIAL ACTIVITIES BOARD

The Graham Memorial Activities Board, as an integral part of the Student Union, is the programming agency for Graham Memorial and the campus. G.M.A.B. is composed of six working committees — Current Affairs, Publicity, Films, Drama, Entertainment, and Music. Their purpose is to reach every Carolina student via his academic, cultural, recreational, and social interests. G.M.A.B. is responsible for planning the G.M. Series which, each year, consists of ten to twelve top-flight entertainment and cultural programs. In addition, G.M.A.B. plans Jubilee, the annual all-campus Spring Weekend, for the purpose of providing every Carolina student with a full weekend of top entertainment. It is through G.M.A.B. that the Graham Memorial Student Union hopes to accomplish its purpose of providing that all-important social, educational, and cultural outlet to enhance the academic education of the student.

publications

Publications at Carolina can mean many things to many people: information on an organization, light poetry, old memories, or stirring editorials. We are fortunate here at Carolina to have publications of excellent quality which few schools can equal. The four are the Yackety Yack, the Daily Tar Heel, the Carolina Quarterly, and the Carolina Handbook. Under the auspices of the Publications Board, these four organizations publish extensively and colorfully the story of life at Carolina, campus and world news, literature, academics, athletics, and entertainment.

THE CAROLINA HANDBOOK

Designed to introduce and familiarize the new student with Carolina Life, Student Government, extracurriculars, sports, etc., the Carolina Handbook is the source of information and insight into the campus. Used predominantly during Fall Orientation, the Handbook continues during the year as a sourcebook for all students, in addition to Freshmen. Here, one of our more lively contributors testifies to the excellent quality of the publication, the infamous staff having flown to the four corners of the earth.

THE CAROLINA QUARTERLY

The Carolina Quarterly offers quality writing to the campus. While main consideration is given to campus writers, famous outside authors also contribute to the Quarterly. It has achieved an excellent national reputation, demonstrated by subscription requests from all over the country. The magazine also moved into big-time again with a modest pay policy from contributions, made possible in part by outside patronage. The fever of students for their own writing was satisfied by the Quarterly's weekly writing workshops. The Quarterly stimulates greater interest in literature on the campus and gives the University community a magazine that mirrors its best thoughts. Working on the idea that a college publication should fit into the educative process, the Quarterly continues to publish literature of the highest quality.

YACK CELEBRATES 75th YEAR

1965 marks the Diamond Anniversary of the Yackety Yack on the Carolina campus. This year we have produced another of the books which is recognized nationally as one of the finest college and university publications of its kind. We hope that you will enjoy this blue ribbon edition, for a lot of fun and good hard work went into its production. But, emerging from our green prison in the basement of G.M., we show ourselves to the world.

DAILY TAR HEEL IN 73rd YEAR

The Daily Tar Heel, the oldest college daily in the South, and one of the oldest in the nation, began its 73rd year on February 23rd with its largest circulation and greatest number of issues in history. Edited by Fred Seely and Hugh Stevens, the D.T.H., as always, got embroiled in many hot campus controversies, including the bitter N.S.A. affiliation battle during the Fall semester. Mike Yopp, a first-year student at U.N.C., filled in admirably as Managing Editor for most of the year, assisted by such able souls as Ernie McCrary, Alan Banov, John Greenbacker, and Kerry Sipe. The Sports Department distinguished itself when Sports Editor Larry Tarleton was the only writer in the state to predict U.N.C.'s victory over Duke in their first basketball clash.

fine arts

THE CAROLINA PLAYMAKERS

The Carolina Playmakers enjoyed one of their most successful and well-received seasons during the 1964-65 academic year, presenting five major productions and three bills of student-produced, one-act plays. The season opener, "My Fair Lady," was presented for four nights in Memorial Hall. This production proved to be one of the most popular efforts in the Playmakers' history, playing to over 5,500 theatergoers and breaking all Playmakers attendance records. The December production of "Hamlet," presented in commemoration of the 400th anniversary of the birth of Shakespeare, enjoyed an extended run of nine performances in the Playmakers Theatre.

The 1964-65 season, the Playmakers' 47th year of presenting both original and standard dramatic works on the U.N.C. campus, also included major productions of "Oh Dad, Poor Dad, Mama's Hung You in the Closet and I'm Feelin' So Sad," "Billy Budd," and "A Streetcar Named Desire."

A popular Playmakers innovation has been the "Student Night" performances, in which the opening performances of each play are reserved exclusively for U.N.C. students and their dates. Tickets for these performances are made available at reduced rates.

Serving as a community theater as well as a laboratory theater for students in the Department of Dramatic Art, the Carolina Playmakers also sponsor an active Student Workshop Theatre in which experimental productions are presented.

FINE ARTS FESTIVAL

For the first time since 1944, the Carolina Fine Arts Festival was given rebirth on campus. The first was held by Richard Adler, noted composer of Broadway musicals; but the movement died soon afterwards because of the Second World War. It was revived at a meeting in May, 1962, when interested students met to discuss its placement on a permanent basis. A decision was made on its formulation for the Spring of 1965 with a subdivision of six areas: Art, Drama, English, Radio, Television, and Motion Pictures, Journalism, and Music. The visiting lecturers, performers, or critics for the respective departments were Ben Shahn, Lecturer of Art; Robert Chapman, commenting on the screenplay for Billy Budd; the Literary Symposium, sponsored by Esquire magazine; Robert Crowther, movie critic of the New York Times; William Schuman, President of Lincoln Center and noted composer; Peter Nero; Jacques Barzun of Columbia University in addition to other noted guest scholars.

In the last fifteen years there has been a great expansion of interest in the role of the arts in modern society. Although there has always been a place for the arts, particularly music, in American life, it is only recently that they have ceased to be the property of a small group and have become truly popular. A very large part of the credit for this new popularity has been the universities. Already at Chapel Hill we have the beginnings of a significant collection of painting and sculpture in the Ackland Museum, and a working program for the production of work of high quality in these fields by students and faculty. Performances of distinction are given by the Music Department and by the Playmakers. A great deal of interesting and able work is being done in the area of Radio, Television, and Motion Pictures. In the field of creative writing, we are happy to have, in addition to the permanent staff, Writers-in-Residence who join our community for shorter periods, during which they engage in creative writing and offer formal instruction and encouragement to students.

The purpose of the 1965 Carolina Festival was twofold. A series of first-rate performers and performances focused attention on the high level of what is being done here now in the fine arts and provided inspiration for further progress. The Playmakers produced Billy Budd. The Music Department produced a concert; there was a showing of significant recent films, and an exhibition of paintings in the Ackland Museum. In many cases, prominent performing artists were invited to Chapel Hill to add strength to our local talent. In addition, a group of distinguished scholars and critics will be invited to discuss some of the problems arising out of the new position of the university in the fine arts. Is the university the proper patron of the arts? Do writers, poets, and painters in residence produce work of satisfactory quality, or are they guilty of a new academicism? Are we doing enough to encourage students and the community at large to enjoy and to participate in the arts? Does university patronage conceal a subtle censorship? These are some of the questions answered during the 1965 Fine Arts Festival.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB

"Hark the Sound of Tar Heel Voices" say the words to the song . . . and the U.N.C. Men's Glee Club is proud to point out that this is exactly what audiences have been doing, as 1964-65 ushered in the 75th anniversary of the Club and marked its one hundred and seventeenth year of presenting the best in choral music. A select group of some fifty voices chosen by audition each fall, the Club averages from forty to fifty appearances annually, including numerous campus concerts, joint appearances with other college choral groups, and appearances in cities all over the state and nation.

Dr. Joel Carter — "Doc" to Club members — has directed the Glee Club for the last fifteen years, and during that time has established the all-important "esprit de corps" of the Club. Musically expert, quiet of manner and voice, Doctor Carter always manages to bring out the utmost loyalty and pride in his Club members.

Clad in the traditional blue blazers by day, and tuxedos by night, Club members were always ready to carry their luggage and their voices to other areas. Fall brought on a tour of North Carolina, while Spring came in with the anticipation of a trip up the Eastern seaboard, ending in a return appearance at the New York World's Fair. Versatility is a by-word in the Club, and, whether Christmas caroling

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ESTABLISHES RESIDENCE COLLEGE SYSTEM

The phenomenon of a mushrooming University with all its complexities has been a new, major problem facing Student Government this year. Mass registration, mass classes, mass intercollegiate sport activities, and mass housing accommodations are the necessary characteristics of a University which encompasses more than 11,000. The student gets the impression that he amounts to no more than a few holes punched in an IBM card: he feels a sense of anonymity heightened by the lack of significant personal involvement in the academic community.

Student Government officers were led by President Bob Spearman. Vice-President Don Carson, Secretary Madeline Gray, and Treasurer Jim Light. They were aided by Presidential Assistant Mike Chanin, Press Secretary Miriam

BOB SPEARMAN

Dorsey, Miss Williams, the Executive Secretary, and by more than 600 students holding positions on over 35 Student Government Committees. Working continuously for the improvement of the academic, cultural, and social life of students, they combined forces with the administration and faculty to meet the challenges of our massive University.

The concern of Student Government about the growing University led to the beginning of a Residence College System. Residence Halls located closely together are being grouped into self-governing colleges in an effort to bring a more significant group life to the residence hall, through an increased emphasis on academic, cultural and recreational concerns.

Student Government also co-operated with the University administration in setting up several social rooms including the Joyner Pilot Project. Expenses were shared on a 2-1 basis, the Administration paying twice as much as Student Government.

To stimulate a greater interest on public issues, Student Government co-sponsored National Issues Week October 26-30 with various other campus organizations. Such outstanding figures as Averill Harriman, Under-Secretary of State for Political Affairs; Richard Starr, noted political science professor and member of Voice of America; and Herbert Philbrick, author of I Led Three Lives and counter-spy for nine years, spoke on topics of national concern. A mock presidential election, won by President Johnson, was conducted on November 2.

A community service project, Volunteers in Giving a Hand (VIGAH), was organized by Student Government with the advice of officials of the North Carolina Fund. These volunteers are setting up typing and adult reading classes in the preparation of government surplus foods.

The State Affairs Committee has sent a number of students to speak at various civic clubs throughout the state in an effort to improve the over-all public opinion of the University and discuss its role in the state. Students also personally contacted state legislators to acquaint them with the University's budget needs.

A course evaluation booklet was written and published by the Academic Affairs Committee. It evaluated courses which are either very popular on this campus or which are outstanding but relatively unknown to students.

Through the Student Government Report, a monthly newsletter informing students of student government activities and programs, communications with the campus were broadened. President Spearman and Vice-President Carson both spoke in many residences during the year explaining student government issues.

Student Government also worked with many new projects including a campus radio station, the President's Commission on the Status of the Coed, the establishment of a President's Cabinet, composed of the Presidents of the Men's Residence Council, Women's Residence Council, Carolina Women's Council, Panhellenic Council, and the Interfraternity Council, a joint student-faculty committee to propose reforms in the Campus and Honor Codes, and the re-establishment of the Fine Arts Festival in the spring of 1965.

ORIENTATION COMMITTEE JOINS STUDENTS AND ADMINISTRATORS

ANN MCDANIEL

LOUISE MENEFEE

Orientation Fall '64 covered five eventful days, September 13-17. Designed for new students at Chapel Hill, the program was conducted on six levels: freshman men and women, transfer men and women, graduate and foreign students.

Many students gave generously of their time and energy to make the program — a joint student-administrative endeavor — a highly successful one. In addition to the 25 committee members, numerous coeds worked through the spring and summer on the Secretariat handling office chores. Over 450 students served as Orientation Counselors.

PERRY MCCARTY

Certainly the highlight of the '64 Orientation was the joint beginning of U.N.C.'s new Chancellor, Paul F. Sharp, with the incoming classes. The vibrant and vigorous warmth of U.N.C. in the early fall provided a fitting background for the task of preparing new students to spend a happy and profitable first year at U.N.C.

From the very outset to the near or distant end of one's stay in Chapel Hill, there is an abundance of opportunity, and Orientation tries to introduce U.N.C.'s new students to those opportunities.

Anxious to do more than merely observe the rising turmoil that was Europe in 1936, and concerned with the changes being injected into American society by the New Deal, students in the Political Science classes of the late Professor E. J. Woodhouse formed the Carolina Political Union.

The Union, designed to provide sponsorship for speakers prominent in the field of public affairs and to promote debate among the selected membership, thrived from 1936-1954. During this period, the Union brought such speakers to the campus as Senators Claude Pepper and Gerald Nye. Speaker Sam Rayburn, President Franklin D. Roosevelt, and Congressman John F. Kennedy.

The C.P.U. was re-organized last Spring on the initiative of several student leaders who felt that such a non-partisan discussion group had a definite place in the University community. During the past year, the Union has met with Senator John Sherman Cooper, Rep. Frank Thompson, Gov. Ross Barnett, Dean William S. Barnes (of the Harvard Law School), former Governor Averill Harriman, Herbert Philbrick, and several faculty guest speakers. The Union meets each Sunday night in the Grail Room of Graham Memorial. The members are selected by interview before the Union, which is limited to thirty members from both the graduate and undergraduate student body.

S. N. E. A. PROMOTES PROFESSIONAL INTEREST

STUDENT NATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION

The Student N.E.A. exists for a number of reasons: to develop professional interest on the part of those students planning on entering upon a teaching career; to serve as a common meeting ground and as a chance for students to share attitudes and ideas with others in the same field; and, particularly, to provide opportunities for group participation and leadership training.

Regularly scheduled meetings are held once a month at which time informative and entertaining programs are presented.

DON CARSON

The Thirty-Seventh Legislative Assembly has had few peaceful sessions. Early in the session, a proposal to submit the question of the controversial student boycott on the campus for a referendum provoked several nights of stormy debate.

In early October it became apparent that efforts were being made to have Carolina disaffiliate from the United States National Student Association. The possibility of a campus referendum on affiliation was debated in committee and on the floor as pro- and anti-N.S.A. forces sought to hold the referendum under conditions most favorable to their cause. The final resolution was followed by a three-week campaign climaxed with a record voting turn-out which brought 5,400 students to the polls. N.S.A. affiliation was maintained by a margin of almost five per cent.

The fall half of the Assembly saw a deluge of financial appropriations, as the Legislature departed from its past precedent of appropriating from the Unappropriated Balance and began dipping into the General Surplus.

As the Thirty-Eighth Assembly began, Legislature turned its attention to continued residence hall improvements and the establishment of a Residence College System. Encouraging reports from the Campus Radio Committee added to the hope that S.G. would have its own radio station soon. Judicial and Orientation Reform also seemed probable for consideration.

ATTORNEY GENERAL INVESTIGATES ALLEGED VIOLATIONS

It is the duty of the Attorney General's staff to investigate and present before the appropriate council any alleged violations of the Honor or Campus Codes. The expanding University and increasing importance of the role of the judiciary has necessitated a specialization in several areas. In addition to the staffs of the Men's and Women's Councils, there exists another group to handle all residence hall violations and to present these cases before the M.R.C. court. A fourth group exists to handle cases appearing before the I.F.C. court.

When a case is reported to the Attorney General's office, it is assigned to a member of the staff for investigation. Another member is assigned to serve as defense counselor for the accused in order to explain his rights and the procedure of the council. It is the duty of the investigator to summon all necessary witnesses, gather statements, and present his own summary of the case. The defense counselor assists in aiding the defendant himself.

In essence, the Attorney General's staff represents the contact between the accused students and a particular judging body. It was originally set up so that members of the council would not have to do investigation themselves and thus have prior knowledge of a particular case.

MEN'S COUNCIL ESTABLISHES STUDENT-FACULTY COMMITTEE

The Men's Council is the court of original jurisdiction for male violators of the Honor and Campus Codes. Its purpose is to mete out justice for violators, to lead campus thinking and attitudes toward honor, and to direct standards of behavior in a positive direction.

This year, the most important activity for the Council was the establishment of a student-faculty-administration advisory committee on the Honor System. The committee met throughout the year calling members of the University community to air their views about the System. Late in the spring, a report was issued to the Chancellor, giving the committee's complete re-evaluation of the principles and workings of the Honor System — the first such study in recent history.

Besides questions of procedure, the committee considered the more fundamental issues of the University's responsibility for moral education and the extent to which it should exercise its jurisdiction.

The Council attempts to make the Honor System a positive code of conduct and integrity — one which applies to all members of the academic community, faculty and student alike.

SARA ANNE TROTT
Chairman

WOMEN'S COUNCIL SEEKS TO IMPROVE HONOR SYSTEM

The Women's Council, composed of eleven geographically elected members and a chairman, is the court of original jurisdiction in cases involving the alleged violation of the Campus and/or Honor codes by female students. In addition it tries cases involving specific violations of Women's Residence Rules such as latenesses of an hour or more. Appeals from House Councils also are heard by this body.

Aside from these regulatory functions, the Council, through various elected representatives, seeks to improve the Honor System and the students' knowledge of it. This year the chairman is serving as a member of the Chancellor's Advisory Committee on the Honor System, an advisor for the Student Government Committee on the Status of the Carolina Coed, and as a consultant for the Women's Residence Council Rules Committee. She also meets regularly with the President's Cabinet, the Dean of Women, and the other heads of student judicial bodies.

The House Council Coordinator meets regularly with the vice-presidents of residence halls and sorority house managers to supervise and coordinate the work of the various House Councils on campus. Members also serve on the Honor System Study Commission and the Constitutional Council.

Through these various related groups the Council seeks to fulfill a creative role with regard to the Honor System.

CAROLINA WOMEN'S COUNCIL PROMOTES UNITY AND ENTHUSIASM

The Carolina Women's Council is the coordinating body among the women's dormitories. C.W.C. is composed of a chairman, elected in the spring campus elections; a social chairman and two activities chairmen from each dormitory; a representative from W.A.A.; and Sue Ross, advisor from the Office of the Dean of Women.

C.W.C. sponsors campus-wide dances, mixers, and group discussions with the Men's Residence Council. The council also works with the various women's organizations to offer further activities for the coeds.

Activities within the individual dorms such as dorm breakfasts, mixers, Homecoming Displays, and guest speaker programs are encouraged by the council. The main goals of C.W.C. are greater unity and enthusiasm among the dormitory women.

GAYLE RAULERSON

Men's Residence Council

M. R. C. COURT HAS CONTINUITY OF MEMBERSHIP

This year, the Men's Residence Council has continued its efforts towards the establishment of a system of residence colleges at the University. Each college will be made up of the residence halls in a particular geographical area. A committee of faculty, administration, and students have organized intramurals, set up modern civilization classes, and assigned chaplains on a residence college basis for this fall. In the spring the residence college system became more of a reality, when two such colleges were established on an experimental basis. Also, the groundwork has been laid for the construction of community social rooms in each of the college areas.

Both the M.R.C. court and social programs have had a banner year. The court has been characterized by a continuity of membership and has proven to be responsible and judicious in its decisions. The social program has been geared to the residence college level and has been marked by an enthusiasm and a quality that has never before been obtained.

The most outstanding quality of the M.R.C. this year has been the leadership exhibited by the individual hall presidents and M.R.C. representatives. They have made each of the halls a pleasant place in which to live.

WOMEN'S RESIDENCE COUNCIL STRESSES FRESHMAN ORIENTATION

W.R.C. is the women's legislative branch of Student Government. The Council draws up and approves all rules governing the social standards and the welfare of women students. This year W.R.C. has given much attention to the freshman program, emphasizing orientation and counseling, co-ordination of standards in the dorms, and integration of freshmen into the student body. The Council has also worked in co-operation with the Placement Service to encourage senior registration. A file on study and travel abroad is also maintained in the Student Government offices.

THE CHANGING PARTY

The University Party, founded in 1926, is Carolina's oldest political party. It is based on the Jacksonian principle of democracy that "the more persons active in government, the stronger the government."

Holding as its basic aims a stronger student government, the Party continued its efforts during the fall to bring more students into an active participation in student government. The Party conducted a mailing about student government to entering freshmen and provided a book with information during the beginning of school.

In November, in an unexpected announcement, Jeff Adams resigned his position as Party Chairman. Jim Hubbard was elected Chairman for the remainder of the year with the optimistic outlook of unifying the Party.

PUB BOARD ESTABLISHES SUB-COMMITTEES FOR SPECIALIZATION

The Publications Board supervises the financial transactions of the Daily Tar Heel, the Yackety Yack, the Carolina Quarterly, the Carolina Handbook, and any other Student Government publications. The Board is in charge of hiring and firing employees, preparing budgets, and determining salaries for the publications. This year, for the first time, sub-committees were established to handle long- and short-range planning and to deal with special problems of each of the publications. The Board is responsible to both branches of Student Government and to the student body as a whole for proper reception and allocation of funds.

HONOR SYSTEM COMMISSION QUIZZES JUDICIAL MEMBERS

The Honor System Commission has worked this year to strengthen and clarify the U.N.C. Honor System. One of its first duties was to administer orientation and quizzes for prospective members of the Men's and Women's Honor Councils. This year, for the first time, the Commission gave quizzes to members of all judicial courts within the university.

The Commission has also worked closely with the University of Oregon in an attempt to change U.N.C.'s Campus Code so that it will apply to students only while they are on the Carolina campus.

Another major endeavor has been to establish a Public Defender's Staff to provide active defense for students going before a judicial court.

The Commission has had the responsibility of traveling to various high schools throughout the state and introducing U.N.C.'s honor system to the students.

The Commission has also compiled a brochure on the mechanics and philosophy of the Honor System, which aided its Speakers as well as provided a source of information for requests by other schools.

One of the Forum's most successful years was 1964-1965. As principal sponsor of National Issues Week prior to the National Elections, it brought Under-Secretary of State for Political Affairs, W. Averill Harriman, and writer Herbert Philbrick to campus. On April 8, economist and former Ambassador to India, John Kenneth Galbraith, addressed the student body, and on April 22 Playboy publisher Hugh Hefner spoke. Other speakers included James Reston of the New York Times and Ralph McGill of the Atlanta Constitution. Speakers tentatively scheduled were Walter Reuther, Arthur Schlesinger, Jr., George Cabot Lodge, and Governor George Wallace.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES FUND RENDERS ACCOUNTING SERVICE

The Student Activities Fund Office was organized in 1931 to render accounting service to Student Government organizations. In addition to serving Student Government, the office, the only one of its kind in the country, has expanded through the years and is presently serving thirty-five other campus organizations and twenty-two fraternities and sororities.

ELECTIONS BOARD SPEEDS UP ELECTION RETURNS

This year the date of the fall campus-wide elections was changed from November 3 to November 10 to avoid a conflict with the National elections.

The Elections Board worked diligently during the weeks preceding the elections in order to avoid a last minute panic in preparations. Much enthusiasm was generated by the Board throughout the campus, and, as a result, ballots, polling districts, poll tenders, and counters were organized and ready several days prior to the election date. Early and properly organized efforts aided tremendously in conducting a smooth and efficiently run election.

This year's Board accomplished an unprecedented feat in the tabulation of the election returns. Through speed and efficiency the Elections Board compiled final totals on all contests by approximately 11:00 P.M. Tuesday night.

With more than 5,400 students voting, this was the largest election in Carolina's history.

CONSOLIDATED UNIVERSITY COUNCIL ATTRACTS NATIONAL MERIT SCHOLARS

The Consolidated Student Council, which is composed of delegates from all three campuses of the University, discusses ideas and problems of common concern to students at Chapel Hill, Raleigh, and Greensboro. In addition, the C.U.S.C. stages "Consolidated University Day," oversees observances on each campus, and selects the C.U. Queen.

During the 1964-65 school year, the Council investigated methods of attracting National Merit Scholars to the University, discussed the proposed name change of N. C. State, and submitted a proposal concerning a promotional movie for the University. The group met with administrators of all three campuses in order to explore the role of each branch of the University in the educational processes of the state.

The C.U.S.C. also makes awards to persons who render outstanding service to the University, such as basketball coach Everett Case of State.

The President of the C.U.S.C. is Hugh Stevens. The officers of the body rotate among the different campuses from year to year.

BUDGET COMMITTEE WORKS TO REDUCE LEGISLATURE'S WORK

The main purpose of the Budget Committee is to present to the Student Legislature a budget for each campus organization and committee that requires student government funds. In the past, several committees and organizations have been overlooked and many have been given inadequate appropriations. This year the Budget Committee has directed its efforts towards estimating exactly the needs of the various campus activities for the year 1965-1966. The Committee has become familiar with each organization through monthly financial reports. Many thanks must be given to Student Body Treasurer Jim Light for pointing out areas in which changes were needed and thus facilitating the Committee's task.

AUDIT BOARD STRIVES TO IMPROVE PROFESSIONAL ACCOUNTING

The primary function of the Audit Board is to supervise the Student Activities Fund Office. The group also serves as a financial control and as an advisory board to Student Government.

Five students appointed annually and two faculty advisors constitute the membership of the Board. The Board meets throughout the year, striving to provide continued and improved professional accounting services to Student Government and campus organizations through the Student Activities Fund Office.

CAMPUS AFFAIRS UNDERTAKES "CAREERS FOR CAROLINA"

In essence, the Campus Affairs Board is the Tenth Amendment to Student Government. It controls all those sections of campus life that are not specifically delegated to other committees. As a result, it is faced with many problems that crop up unexpectedly. Determined to meet these problems and to solve them as efficiently as possible, co-chairmen Faryl Sims and Lanny Shuff have established several small functioning sub-committees. By having each sub-committee responsible for a particular type of problem, the efficiency of the committee as a whole has been increased greatly. Some of the projects undertaken this year include: "Careers for Carolina," more car wash areas, a typing room for students, and action on the nightmare of campus parking.

STATE AFFAIRS SPONSORS STUDENT LECTURES

The State Affairs Committee attempts to inform the people of North Carolina of the scope and nature of their state university in the light of present and future problems facing education in North Carolina. The committee strives to bring before the public the needs of the University in meeting the increased challenge to higher education in the state, and to explain how these needs may best be met.

The program for the 1964-1965 school year includes a series of student lectures given to various civic organizations throughout the state. These talks are designed to inform the public of various activities of the University and how these activities benefit the state.

ACADEMIC AFFAIRS STRIVES FOR COMMUNICATION

The Academic Affairs Committee strives towards communicating with and easing tensions between the students and the faculty. Its goals surpass those of former years in hopes of more thoroughly aiding the student during his academic career at North Carolina. Through more extensive work it also is attempting to gain the respect of the administration.

This year a course evaluation booklet is being published to aid the student in choosing his elective courses during the following semesters. Through objective criticism of courses and of permanent faculty members, it will enable students to become aware of outstanding courses offered by the university.

It will also help the administration to realize how the students feel about particular courses and professors.

The Committee also is working with an evaluation program which will evaluate every course, including those that are good, mediocre, and bad. The results of the program will then be made available to the professors, so that they will be aware of the weak or strong points of their courses. This program will be handled with the aid of questionnaires and computer work. The effectiveness of seminar groups and other problems which concern the academic life at Carolina will also be investigated.

DEBATE TEAM IS TOPS IN EAST

The Debaters again proved to be one of the top teams in the East as they represented the University in tournaments at Kentucky, Emory, N.Y.U., Dartmouth, Wake Forest, Harvard, South Carolina, and Pittsburgh. Debating the topic RESOLVED: "That the Federal Government should establish a national program of public work for the unemployed," the team defeated such strong national powers as Miami, Loyola, Georgia, Wake Forest, and Duke. It also played host to the N.C. High School State Championship tournament and publicly recognized the top ten individual high school debaters in the state.

The team expanded its novice program this year with the addition of Mr. Charles Lucht, Assistant Director of Debate, to serve under Dr. D. K. Springer, Director of Debate. Under Mr. Lucht's supervision, the novice teams enjoyed an unprecedented year of success in intercollegiate competition as defending champions of the A.C.C.

NATIONAL MERIT SCHOLARSHIP COMMITTEE EXTENDS VISITATION PROGRAM

In its third year of operation the National Merit Scholarship Committee continues to attract talented N.M.S. semi-finalists from the state to U.N.C.

Emphasis for the year's work centers on establishing permanent arrangements for the annual three-day visitation to the campus planned for the semi-finalists. This program consists of tours, lectures, interviews, and social functions to acquaint high-caliber students with Carolina life.

In view of the new admissions policy of the University, plans have been made to extend the visitation program to include prospective coeds.

STUDENT BODY VOTES FOR NATIONAL STUDENT ASSOCIATION

The first thing confronting the N.S.A. Campus Committee this year was a referendum to determine whether U.N.C. would continue to be affiliated with the National Students Association. The students voted to continue this affiliation, thus giving a mandate to the committee for action in the fields of NSA's concern — education, student government, and human relations.

At press time, the committee had planned to conduct a leadership training program; to sell the publication, N. C. and the Negro, to raise funds for sending a U.N.C. Student to Operation Crossroads Africa; to publicize and assist students in using N.S.A.'s travel aids and information services; to make available the special N.S.A. student life insurance policy; and to continue to supply other student government committees with materials useful in their fields of activity.

In short, the year started on a bad note, but after overcoming this initial obstacle, the committee set out upon its main task — to benefit in as many ways as possible the campus and the student community.

DI-PHI MAINTAINS FREE DEBATE AND EXCHANGE OF IDEAS

Amidst cries of "Mr. President! . . . Mr. President! . . . Objection, Mr. President! . . . Does the speaker really feel that . . .?" the Dialectic and Philanthropic Societies debated into their one hundred seventieth year as the nation's oldest debating societies. An extremely active and growing membership fostered a split in the Di and Phi, which had combined in 1959.

A keen sense of responsibility is inherent within the Dialectic and Philanthropic Societies to maintain the traditions of free debate and exchange of ideas as conceived in the very beginning of the University of North Carolina. The Societies also strive to present a challenge to the University community, to listen to the ideas of others, to formulate their own ideas, and to learn the fundamental art of debating to better present those ideas. As each new member is selected for membership, he becomes instilled with this idea and purpose just as each member graduating carries these principles into the greater world society.

PHARMACY SENATE FACES PROBLEMS OF PROFESSION

The Pharmacy Senate was founded at U.N.C. in 1940 by Dean E. A. Brecht in order to stimulate and increase knowledge and appreciation for the profession of pharmacy, to promote inter-class cooperation within the school, and to teach public speaking as a foundation for future leadership.

The body meets once a month, and discusses new drugs, new pharmaceutical processes, and various problems facing the profession today.

COSMOPOLITAN CLUB SPONSORS MOCK PAKISTANI WEDDING

The Cosmopolitan Club is composed of both international students and Americans from the University community. Through its varied activities, the Club endeavors to provide a place for the exchange of ideas and personal viewpoints among persons of different cultural and national backgrounds.

Throughout the year the Club sponsors programs concerning relevant international issues and cultures of the homelands of the members. Each week there is an informal dinner and round table discussion. Among the social programs are the Christmas Ball, folksinging and dancing, picnics, sight-seeing trips, and parties with other international clubs. The highlight of the Club's program is the International Dinner presented each spring, at which are featured national dishes and a talent show, which in 1964 centered around a mock Pakistani wedding.

Officers for this year are: John Clinard (U.S.A.), president; Essa Abdulla (Pakistan), vice-president; Elizabeth Clark (U.S.A.), secretary; Larry Stern (U.S.A.), treasurer; Abdo Bardawil (Lebanon), cultural chairman; S. P. Viswanathan (India) and Fatma Ramanazanoglu (Turkey), social chairmen.

YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

The Y.W.C.A. is an interdenominational organization, founded on Christian ideals and beliefs, for coeds interested in giving practical service in the University community, and in developing a better understanding of current events and problems.

The Y.W.C.A. is governed by an executive committee, and its diverse activities are coordinated into a cabinet. The organization's committees were established to fulfill the needs and interests of the individual student.

Some of the community service projects include volunteer work in nearby hospitals, training with Girl Scout troops, and a Campus Chest drive for local charities.

In the field of education, the Y.W.C.A. sponsors seminar trips to New York and Washington, and a student summer trip to Europe. A model U.N. Assembly and a model political convention were spring projects. The organization also brings speakers to the campus and has discussion groups on religious, racial, and international problems.

In all its activities, the Y.W.C.A. offers its members opportunities to work with and learn from their fellow students.

WESTMINSTER FELLOWSHIP

The Presbyterian Westminster Fellowship this year continued its program of Christian campus ministry in its attempts to meet the spiritual needs of Carolina students. A wide range of activities in five main areas was sponsored: after-supper worship, a Film Forum, Faculty Home Seminars, the Fall and Spring Synod Conferences, and social work.

LUTHERAN STUDENT ASSOCIATION

The Lutheran Student Association is composed of students who are attempting to come to a fuller understanding of the meaning of Christian faith in their daily lives. Its members participate in a many-faceted program of worship, study, evangelism, service, and recreation. Meeting every Sunday night at the Student Center next to Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, the Association works for and with the students.

NAVAL R.O.T.C.

The Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps at the University of North Carolina is one of the top 52 such units established at many colleges and universities for the purpose of providing the United States Navy with a supply of well-trained officers. Through the N.R.O.T.C. program, a student may receive his commission in the Line or Staff of the Navy or in the Marine Corps by successfully completing his four years at Carolina and by completing eight semester courses in Naval Science.

The midshipmen take part in such unit activities as the Drill Team, the Drum and Bugle Corps, the unit newspaper, the rifle team, the Flight Indoctrination program, and the intramural program. These activities have brought honors to the midshipmen and to the unit and, with efficient classroom instruction and drill, add to the character and leadership qualities of the future officers of the United States Navy.

ANGEL FLIGHT

The Angel Flight is the auxiliary to and sponsor of the Arnold Air Society. The purposes of the Flight are to strengthen and promote interest in the A.F.R.O.T.C., to aid in the progress of the Arnold Air Society and the Cadet Corps, and to gain and to promote high morale in the A.F.R.O.T.C. Corps.

To fulfill these objectives, the Angels maintain a full schedule of activities. They assist the Corps through the planning and preparation of coffee hours, the Air Force-Navy Military Ball, the Corps' picnics and other social events. They also accompany the cadets on such occasions as Area Drill Competition and Arnold Air Society Area Conclaves.

Though most of Angel Flight's activities take place on a local level, it is a national organization with one hundred twelve flights within the United States.

As in the past, this has been a full and rewarding year for the girls who wear the silver wings and Air Force blue of the Angel Flight.

ARNOLD AIR SOCIETY

Arnold Air Society, founded in 1947 in honor of General "Hap" H. Arnold, is a national honorary organization composed of selected sophomore, junior, and senior A.F.R.O.T.C. cadets. The Society, to promote interest within the Cadet Corps and in the Air Force, offers a wide variety of programs from speakers and films to social events.

Scabbard and Blade is a national honorary military society formed to preserve and develop the essential qualities of good and efficient officers and to unite in closer relationship the military departments of various universities and colleges.

"L" Company, 8th Regiment of Scabbard and Blade, is made up of outstanding N.R.O.T.C. midshipmen and

A.F.R.O.T.C. cadets. The company sponsors the annual Scabbard and Blade Military Ball for the midshipmen and cadets in each unit and promotes competition between the units. It serves as a medium of coordination between the two units at Carolina, and assumes the lead in projecting a modern attitude toward military service.

SEMPER FIDELIS SOCIETY

The Semper Fidelis Society was originally founded at the University of North Carolina on October 9, 1952. It was founded by students with the objective of preparing themselves as officers in the United States Marine Corps. The Society sets forth objectives of receiving and disseminating policies, doctrines, and vital information pertinent to better understanding of their many responsibilities as officers of the United States Marine Corps; stimulation and protection of the high traditions and ideals of the United States

Marine Corps; promotion of good fellowship and cultivation of the social virtues among its members.

As founder, the Alpha chapter of the Semper Fidelis Society is known as the parent chapter. The Society is presently composed of 48 chapters in various colleges and universities throughout the country. Members of the Society are: D. Apple; L. W. Bailey; T. Barker; D. Bickel; S. Bullsley; L. Sweetheart of Winston Hall

The Men of Winston have worked since the beginning of the year with great determination to make Winston the best residence hall on campus. Under the leadership of the officers, Winston has changed from a destructive hell-raiser of past years to a high-spirited, unified group of Carolina Gentlemen.

Intramurals were popular this year, with everyone in Winston playing at least one sport. We entered more teams in football and basketball than any other campus organization. Two wrestling champions were products of Winston's vigorous physical fitness program.

The social program was highlighted by mixers with South Spenser at UNC-G and Spencer Dorm at Carolina. Parties followed every home football game, sometimes with a combo, but always with music and a variety of refreshments. A $100 pizza contest was overwhelmingly won by Winston.

Winston boasts the sweetest and prettiest residence hall Sweetheart in Anita Wilkinson. But there are other Carolina Coeds proud to be associated with Winston. Cydne Wright represents Winston on the Yackety Yack Beauty Court, and Judy Allen brought further honor to Winston as a member of the Homecoming Court.

This year Winston is represented by several girls — next year it will be represented by 175 girls. Yes, the unfortunate and shocking news to the whole campus has been the decision to yield the Best Men's Residence Hall to the fairer sex. Oh well, they could not be replacing finer men.

EHRINGHAUS

Miss Ella Stephenson
Sweetheart of Ehringhaus Hall

In the beginning was the word, and the word was . . . the STUDS are back! Back to the Haus, this time for a new concept in dormitory . . . er . . . residence hall living. Byron McCoy, president and chief stud(?), pushed his committees and executive officers into fulfilling the promise of a well-rounded dorm program. Remember the Green Room meetings which usually turned into rumbles, the mud-bowl football games, the fifth floor politics, that d . . . d newspaper called the STUD, the fabulous combo parties with the combos that finally showed, women in the dorm.

Heard of the politico doll? Wind it up and it flops on the fifth floor. Only in Ehringhaus can we take intellectuals, introduce them to politics, and watch them flunk out of school!

Remember our problems: M.R.C., as usual, faced the nation (of Ehringhaus) singlehandedly. South Building builds our residents a kiddie park in which to play . . . the magic forest dies . . . fourteen parking places for 290 cars . . . losing dorm points through our #!# . . . GIRLS, nothing new . . . take them any way you want . . . the famous phantom rides again . . . M.R.C. turns off our water . . . fifth and sixth floors' BB gangs clash — mob warfare again . . . jocks, jocks, get them from the peanut man . . . Ehringhaus has got 'em — let's make them pay.

Remember our Social Life: the wonderful world of Homecoming . . . 25 bottles of ginger ale and 100 bottles of . . . Cherry and the ones he passed up . . . those beautiful Saturday nights and those awful Sunday mornings . . . the janitor didn't show up — the officers moping the lobby . . . DOOK weekend, our day on the Nile with Cleo Stephenson, and winning "Best Residence Hall" in the Beat Dook parade . . . dance with Craige . . . Craige and Ehringhaus bury the hatchet . . . Christmas and the nostalgia . . . New Year's and the promise to study more . . . the Ehringhaus welcome to Spring . . . a beer blast! guess who all got blasted . . . the Dorm Senate . . . another concept in modern "university living" . . .

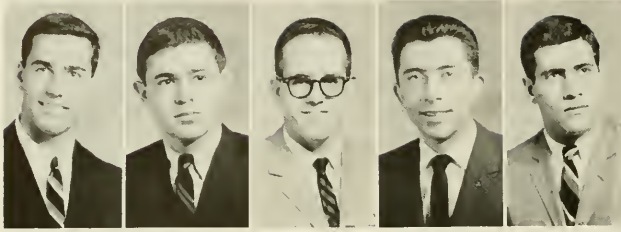

We are humble . . . but we are the greatest! We are low . . . but we're still above everyone else . . . Ehringhaus Hall . . . "Home is where the heart is" . . . and our hearts are here . . .

Frank "Hooneybun" Hlodges represents Ehringhaus in "Ugliest Man on Campus" Contest.

Miss April Shepard, Dixieland singer from Charlotte, N. C., adds appeal to one of Ehringhaus' more successful parties.

EVERETT

Pete Williams Don Howe Phil Whitaker Jim Harris Steve Mack
President Vice-President for Vice-President for Secretary Treasurer
Social Affairs Intramural Activities

When the points were tallied in the first three months of the dorm contest, it was no surprise to anyone to see that Everett was again leading the race. Yes, the same dorm that has won the contest for the past two years, amassing a record number of points each time, is again on its way. But things were not always this productive at the ROGAH HOUSE. A scant three years ago it was voted "most raided dorm on campus" by the exasperated Chapel Hill police. Then there appeared on the scene a young magician named Sam Shapiro, and the powerful Everett machine began to roll. President Shapiro, in his amazing one year term, won the contest practically singlehandedly, while personally doing everything except repainting Graham Memorial.

Now the dorm has evolved into a tightly knit unit whose organization and closeness is unrivaled by any other residence hall on campus. Continuing in the ROGAH tradition, last year, President Paul Dickson organized, pushed, and steamrolled the dorm to an unprecedented 1,600 point total. Working with Paul were some of the stalwarts of the Shapiro squad, mainly Mack and Williams, who have come on to lead the dorm toward a probable third year win.

Now under President Pete Williams, the ROGAH HOUSE is again the dorm to beat, besides being uncontestedly the best organized, most fraternal residence hall on campus. What "Hey Rube" is to the circus, "Dammit ROGAH" is to all the boys down at the grill. Of course, as in any close family, you will find occasional little spats, but when the call goes forth from Pete to go out and win something, the loyal ROGAH forces line up shoulder to shoulder. Thus did we meet the rest of the campus after last year's victory parade. We may have won the contest, but we definitely lost the parade. However, after we bailed out the lower two floors and swept out the charred remains of all those pesky little cherry bombs, everyone was slightly pacified by the knowledge that the Assistant Dean of Men had been drenched like everybody else.

By now, many of you are probably wondering what ROGAH means. It is not something you can put into words. At least, not in the pages of the Yackety Yack. But we can tell you what it stands for. It stands for fraternity, fidelity, and hard work. It stands for exceptional leadership by such officers as Williams, Mack, Howe, Harris, and Whitaker, our trusty intramurals man. It stands for athletes like Tom Dail, whom you find entered just ahead of you in every intramural event, and who came in second in the individual participation contest last year. It stands for an outstanding Rogah staff, who has finally succeeded in getting out a dorm newspaper on at least a semi-regular schedule. It stands for THE BEST DAMN DORM ON CAMPUS.

OLD EAST

OLD EAST RESIDENCE HALL is the oldest state university building in the nation. Its cornerstone was laid by William Richardson Davie on October 12, 1793. For many years this dormitory has served mainly upperclassmen with the exception of a few sophomores and freshmen. Last year Old East ranked third scholastically among dorms on campus. They are also very active participants in the intramural program, and maintain a high loyalty to the University of North Carolina. For the past year they have been striving for better social facilities which they hope are in the near future.

The Grimesmen came back to three-man rooms, the socialist down the hall, the late bull sessions, and the six eight o'clocks. Dorm organization was as indiscernable as ever, but the spirit was high, and Grimes was still the only hall that was not just a house, but also a home.

For the first time in written history, Grimes published its newspaper, The Grimes Times, under the editorship of Jim Cowan. Though embarrassingly lacking in obscenity, it promises to establish a great tradition.

Grimesmen have one great interest — politics. Fifty residents, more than any other dorm, belong to the University Party, and some belong to other extremist organizations. Two of our youngest — Bill Purdy and Buddy Wester — swept to victory as president and vice-president of the freshman class. But, the Great Conspirators went down to defeat with Goldwater, rose again, and fought NSA to the bitterest. The mimeograph machines ran, the propaganda spread, the charges flew, and everyone re-entered school on Nov. 11.

When the hall had finished the ball game, the water fight, or the flyer distribution, we worked to keep the highest men's hall q.p. average, although the prospects were bleak. Grimes burst into intramurals with four football teams, as many as anyone else and more than most, and we had a damn good season! A general love of sports, good team spirits, and intramurals manager Jimmy Weathers promised a full year and strong competition.

The generations come, and the generations go, but Grimes abides forever.

With the beginning of the '64-'65 school year, the administrations of Parker, Teague, and Avery looked to a banner year in advancing the notorious situation of the "Dorm Rat." Following dorm elections in the spring of '64, the three residence halls of P.T.A. immediately embarked on a program of co-operation, with the aim of aiding the ever-present, but still unrealized residence college system. Results were not long in materializing with the construction of the P.T.A. park. Since then, activity has increased: at present, P.T.A. represents one of the first two pilot residence colleges on campus.

P.T.A. is a progressive residence hall area, hopefully a representation of future dorm life at Carolina: an example of concrete results obtained through interested, active, and responsible dorm officers co-operating among themselves and with university officials.

If good leadership and enthusiastic dorm spirit constitute a good residence hall, then this has been a great year for Parker. Housing ninety-three upperclassmen and an equal number of freshmen, Parker has been led well by President John Leonard. Also responsible for Parker's program this year are Alvin Tyndall, Vice-President, who was a crusader for the park in our area, and Ralph Hobbs, Secretary. One of the new approaches to residence hall participation has been Parker's Senate; it is composed of one representative from a suite, each suite containing about eight men. Steve Cooper and Tom Brantley served as special officers in the Senate. Through the Senate, residence hall business has been carried on expediently and competently. When worktime came around, Bill Cooley, John Clower, Ray George, Ken Simons, Tom Ward, and Bob Farris were especially active. How well we remember them waking Parkerites up as they put up freshly painted banners at 2 a.m. the night before a home football game. And Ron Hager is by now a legend in the P. T. A. area; a man who has brought fame and infamy to Parker, Ron is responsible for the many "portraits" that have graced the pages of our newspaper; he also drew the P. T. A. crest. Of course, Head Resident Advisor Clark Brewer and his cohorts, Larry Coleman and George Thomas, were extremely helpful in many of Parker's events, except perhaps our famous "coke" parties that had quite an effect on everyone. Last year Parker's JESTER won first place for residence hall newspapers, and this year we hope that the P. T. A. paper, originated by Jim Little, editor, with Gary Lowe serving as the Parker editor, will fare as well. Intramurals have been excellent, with most of the credit going to our tireless manager, Bud Sullivan. And with the help of M. R. C. men Bill Sasser and Bob Buchanan, most of us survived the year without getting blown up by stray fireworks. Parker's activities began this year with receptions after each home football game, the "coke" parties, and the P. T. A. Dance held at the Naval Armory. This year Parker has truly broken with tradition and joined with her sister residence halls, Teague and Avery, to form the first Residence College Pilot Project. On the basis of the outcome of this Pilot Project, long-range plans for the entire campus will be made.

Avery Hall, home of 254 Carolina Gentlemen, began the year with a new spark of enthusiasm. The Hall officers, aided by the committee chairmen and resident advisors, planned early in the year for upcoming social and academic events.

The year's social activity was kicked off by a mixer with the Nurses' Dorm. The dance at the Naval Armory, another first for P.T.A. area, presented an opportunity for the men of Avery to meet many of the new coeds.

Frank Faulkner, display chairman, and Terry Leonard, Avery editor for the P.T.A. newspaper, helped spur the men into action. Richard Saunders, Intramural Manager, was responsible for Avery's activity in the sporting events.

Christmas again found Avery transformed into a display of lights and tinsel. Again this year, a giant Christmas tree was constructed for the Hall.

Academics, as always, played a part in the life of Avery. The study room was well used, especially before those days of quizzes.

There is no doubt in the minds of the men of Avery that they not only live in the best part of campus, but in the best Hall at the University of North Carolina.

Ruffin, the epitome of dorm spirit and activity . . . Where else would one find such a conglomeration of hell-raisers, scholars, athletes, and, last but not least, gentlemen. Affectionately known as "The Ponderosa" by its 135 residents, Ruffin has served as the mold for many new friendships and memorable experiences during the past year.

In the fall, however, tragedy struck Ruffin twice in rapid succession with the deaths of two residents. The loss of Ralph Vivrette and Gordon Haithcock, a second semester resident, was a terrible blow to their many friends and left Ruffin in a state of disbelief. Ralph and Gordon will be remembered for the warm fellowship they so radiantly emitted to the dorm of which they were such a large part.

Ruffin has experienced another great year in intramurals with "Big T" Baldwin doing the recruiting and coaching. Ruffin's two football teams produced an unexcelled defensive machine which was able to maintain a virgin goal line for the first couple of games. Markland, Hemphill, and Little were among the offensive stars. After being shut out in a volleyball game, however, "Big T" was hung in effigy, but has since been given a vote of confidence. The prospects for basketball are looking up with such returning stars as Leaping Leaf, Consy Crenshaw, Oscar Markland, Meadowlark Harshaw, Bad News Baldwin and Wilt Jacobs. Promising newcomers also include McFadden, Aycock, Fisher and Blaylock. High jump win by Cooper and second place in archery by Racker have helped in brightening the overall intramural picture. Emerson field, next door to the "Ponderosa," has been the scene of many inter-dorm football and baseball games during breaks between studying.

Ruffin's social program for the 1964-65 year, headed by Baxter Linney, got off to a rousing start with a beach party at Atlantic Beach last May.

Intended to be a stag blow-out, plans were happily interrupted when it was discovered that 25 girls from Peace College had rented the cottage down the street.

During the fall, Ruffin and the other three dorms of the Upper Quad gave a combo party after the Wake Forest game with the Keys Combo featured. A mixer with Spencer helped to alleviate the dating problem of the Ruffin freshmen, and a Christmas party sent everyone home for the vacation in high spirits. Ruffin's social activities in the spring included another combo party and the annual trip to the beach.

Included among the various other activities were Ruffin's ingenious creations for the Homecoming display and the Beat Dook parade. We were proud to have Julie Zachary represent us in the Yack Beauty Contest, and disappointed when our entry in the Valkyrie Sing was censored.

From the exterior of the ivy-covered walls, much that goes on within is unnoticed by those outside. There is the "Rat Fink" card tournament up on the second floor; Garner and Carhart painting out lewd signs to welcome visiting football teams; Gantt collecting the laundry ("no tickle, no washee"); the guys up on third floor who like to welcome visitors with a pail of water. Certainly not to be forgotten is the help and advice given by our Resident Advisors: Fred, Spencer, and Frost. Nor should we forget the M. R. C. representatives who give of their time so that others may study in peace.

Don't think for a moment that the Ruffinites ever forget they are at Carolina for that all-important purpose of attaining an education. Reverberating throughout the halls is the soft but unmistakable sound of conscientious studying as the boys diligently flap those pages for tomorrow's classes. The late burning lights all too often are a sure sign of attempts to put our scholastic average up there at the top.

BATTLE-VANCE-PETTIGREW, a nine month home for 133 Tar Heels, has become this year one of the outstanding Men's Residence Halls on this campus.

B. V. P., located in the northwest corner of Davie Quad, is three halls combined as one. It was built in 1912 and is one of the three oldest residence halls here at U. N. C., and it shows it. But we are proud of B. V. P. Such outstanding men as Thomas Wolfe and ex-Chancellor Robert House lived here.

The Halls were named for Kemp Plummer Battle, class of 1849, Zebulon Baird Vance, class of 1855, and James Johnson Pettigrew, class of 1847.

In our front yard stands good ol' Silent Sam, forever guarding our virtue. Another outstanding characteristic we have is the fact that no freshmen live within our domain . . . thank thee, oh kind administration.

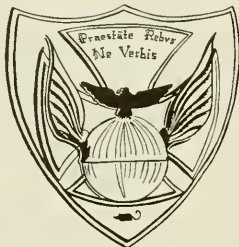

This year as in the past, the Bombers (?), as our intramural teams are known, boast strong squads in everything from horseshoes to football. Many thanks go to Intramural Manager Larry Edwards.

B. V. P.'s administration is headed up by President Ed Freakley who, with able assistance from Vice-President Dan Pratt, Secretary Bill Frazier and M. R. C. Representative Reed Fickling, has provided our dorm with an active program and greatly increased our participation in campus events.

The Bomber View-Point is one of the finest hall newspapers. Capable editors Ken Saunders and David Knesel, with the aid of nine staff members, turn out an interesting and sensational paper twice monthly.

Manly Hall (alias) The Rat Nest — is now under new management: Fred Amend, a hard-working and productive straw boss.

Our den is now shining — fresh paint, new curtains and furniture, floodlights (?) — and RULES . . . with more improvements foreseen for the future. A clean-up campaign is underway — the vice squad has been notified — and social blasts with Minnie Mouses are in the making.

Sports are stealing the spirit of the Nest this year. We're proud of our White Rats. We're proud . . . well, we like our Blue Rats too. N. F. L. (National Frisbee League) Headquarters in 107 is accepting applications — apply immediately! Toilet paper bowling is held every Wednesday and Friday night on 2nd floor. Water skiing is being taught nightly on the fourth floor. Coach Lindsley holds football practice 24 hours a day.

The freshmen carry their weight of the Nest's burdens — and make 65% of them — all are trying to make the 1.25 for next year.

107 returns with its fabled walls. PGA is playing "the waiting game" while C. Reed takes a European jaunt.

Various episodes keep the Nest in an uproar — drink machines that laugh at us as we pour money into them — to no avail, attempted secessions from the main body, unforeseen cold H₂O "applications" in the shower, CCS loses antenna, 207 being moved to Las Vegas, 4th floor is too quiet now (sssay), Dave "Troll" Edwards challenging Ganus for frisbee honors, no Grimean Wars this year, thunder claps heard from 3-man bunks falling.

The Nest presented the following awards this year — The Anonymous Lumpkin Literature Award; The D. Calvert Celiacy Award . . . "Hi Men!" The Mother Hen Award goes to Fred Amend; 3rd floor won the Apathy Award hands down; Ken T. takes the Animosity Award (ears down); The B. Stearns Stability Plaque; the Whirlie Sportsmanship Award; D. Perian and B. Withrow tie for the Lil' ol' Winetaster Award; The Pruitt ROTC Award; the McLean Masterfile Award; the superlative "Most Artistic" goes to S. Stewart, B. Helvestine, J. Ganus, J. Dixon, and Dick Yarborough.

Stacy Chi residents, after making some improvements during the last year, finally have decided to give the more active dorms on campus a run for the Best-Dorm-On-Campus Trophy. With supper parties, cook-outs, open houses, combo parties, newspaper, and intramurals, the Studs "stewed their goals" toward the top. Jan Stout, Stacy's entry in the Homecoming Contest, was named to the Homecoming Court. Our gain was due for a large part to our tres actif president Bill Robinson, who directed our predominately freshmen entres to record participation. These freshmen learned early that: "A Stacy man is welcome wherever he goes . . . a Stacy man needs no introduction . . . a Stacy man knows what to do: because a Stacy man is a Stud!"

The ADX House, now in its sixth year as UNC's "oldest, newest, non-social, non-fraternity," began the year with an all time high 45 pledges.

The Chi House, with chapters at Modesto Junior College, Erasmus Hall High School, Iowa State, and Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, was founded on the principle of giving the brothers more than just another residence hall. Surrounding the ADX House is a rich tradition which includes: Frisbee tours . . . lawn parties . . . mail . . . females . . . drop outs . . . flunk outs . . .

The success of the ADX House in intramurals, campus affairs, gross outs and alcoholic consumption exemplifies the spirit and brotherhood of the house.

On behalf of the founders of the ADX House, Ed Pierce and Steve "Carolina Bottles" Iverson, the officers, President King Burton, Secretary Bud Cohoon, Social Chairman Dorked Houle, Rush Chairman "Bet a million" Harris and Pope Al I, give the annual ADX awards.

Loyalty challenges,

how do they vote;

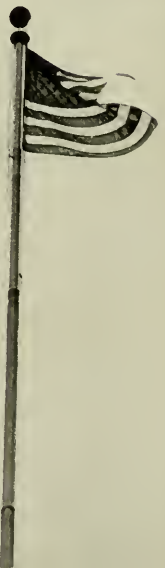

what do they think;

where do they stand.

Will their children accept a thought ban

as easily as they accepted a speaker ban?

Will their children see through the extremists' filter
of red white and blue?

Culture confronts the more than status-seeking art-lover — where to find the concert, play, or book; worth listening to,
seeing, or giving a second look.

God is the ever-present question
who is He? is He necessary?
in learning years answers were examined;
in living years the answers will be tested.

the major problem facing the senior is himself.
can he be more than one of the crowd? — or is he ?

SENIOR CLASS

The Senior Class has aspired to the unification of the class through projects and social functions. In the fall, the class sponsored a poll on the conduct at football games. The class hosted a series of seminars conducted by campus leaders. A most ambitious project was the movie filmed in the spring depicting campus life. Senior Weekend, honoring class members, provided a fitting climax to an eventful year for the class of 1965.

JUNIOR CLASS

Through a variety of projects sponsored by the Junior Class, a bond of common interests and goals, binding each member more firmly to his class, was made a reality.

A successful beginning for the year's activities was achieved through a Junior Class Shoe-shine which offered attractive female "shoe-shiners" as its special fund-raising attraction.

A monthly class letter was sent to each Junior on campus, announcing each project and program planned for that month. Active participation and lasting interest resulted from this class-communication program.

The numerous fund-raising projects and the lively social program was enjoyed by all throughout the year.

By working closely with an inter-class council, inter-class co-operation remained one of the major goals of the Junior Class.

The unity and achievements accomplished by the Junior Class bring a pleasant satisfaction to each Junior as this year draws slowly to a close.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

In an attempt to bring our large class closer together, the Sophomore Class engaged in many fun and fund-raising projects. Fund-raising projects included a variety show, Sunday night Bar-B-Q suppers, and car washes. Mixers with Sophomores from other schools and Sophomore Week-End in the spring climaxed our social activities.

Also, a monthly Newsletter was circulated to all the members of our class relating the various activities, past and future, of our class. We feel that the many activities sponsored by our class and the high percentage of Sophomores participating in these activities have brought our class "Success through Participation" and have justified our pride in being members of the Class of '67.

FRESHMAN CLASS

After fall elections, the officers of the Class of '68 held interviews for Cabinet positions. By the end of November, over one hundred committee appointments had been made. Striving for unity and participation, the class executives established a newsletter to be published monthly. Much attention was focused on the Spring Production in March and Freshman Weekend in May.

The Class of '68 Report provided the class its greatest contribution to the University.

Co-operation and hard work characterized the year for Freshmen. Class spirit was aroused with an undefeated Freshman football team and the Freshman Athletic Spirit Committee never let the enthusiasm dwindle. The Class Co-Ordinating Council insured a well-run, profitable year for Freshmen. In every realm of activity, the Class of 1968 became an active and valuable addition to our great University.

SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

DR. ISSAC TAYLOR
Dean

The School of Medicine, known as a paragon since its inception in 1880, has offered the complete four-year undergraduate program only during the past twelve years, but in that time has risen to a point considered unsurpassed in medical education.

During this year the Memorial Hospital has incorporated new patient care facilities as well as new research potential-ties, both designed to better the medical attention offered to all who enter in need of care. The staff of the School of Medicine and of the Memorial Hospital not only maintain the instruction of the medical students, but include in their teaching program the education of members of various Health Affairs departments and the interested practicing physicians throughout the state.

Learning to read X-rays is only one of the many chores of the present medical students.

The Out-Patient Department, one of many clinical areas, provides services for many people and varying experiences for the doctors.

MEDICAL HONOR COUNCIL

The medical student body has its own honor council which functions within the framework of University Student Government and the Student Council. Its chairman is appointed by the outgoing Honor Council and eight members are elected, two from each of the four classes.

THE WHITEHEAD MEDICAL SOCIETY

The student medical society, organized in 1903 and called the Whitehead Medical Society in honor of Dr. Richard H. Whitehead, the first dean of the School, holds regular meetings throughout the year. Prominent out-of-state speakers, as well as members of the medical faculties of other institutions in the state and of this School, appear on the programs.

SCHOOL OF NURSING

The University of North Carolina School of Nursing has developed from the undergraduate program started in 1951 to a distinguished school including graduate study, continuation education, and research. One of its primary purposes is to develop leadership in nursing. "Programs of study are developed to meet present and future nursing needs not only in quantity but also in quality of nursing care . . . Recognition is given to the development of a theoretical frame of reference for the practice of nursing. In this framework the nurse utilizes the nurse-patient relationship to help the individual or group to achieve and maintain health. To the end that each student develops to the fullest her potentialities as a person, a citizen, and as a professional worker, an acceptable balance is sought between general and professional educational offerings. . . ." This has been and is the purpose of the ". . . youngest school in the oldest state university."

The technical aspect of nursing is only one area of training.

Guided instruction in clinical experience constitutes an important part of the student's recognition and learning of technical and professional skills.

Knowledge of growth and development, of the care of the healthy and sick child, are fundamental aids with which the student nurse can help the child and his family.

There is always a year-round urgent need for well-trained technicians to perform a wide variety of laboratory tests which assist the physician in making an accurate diagnosis and selecting the proper treatment for his patient. In the microbiology laboratory a plate is streaked to determine what bacteria are present.

MEDICAL TECHNOLOGY

In order to meet the medical and hospital needs in North Carolina and to provide adequate training in medical technology for the young men and women of this state, the School of Medicine offers jointly with the College of Arts and Sciences of the University two programs leading to a baccalaureate degree and one leading to a certificate in medical technology. With the advancing medical research and practice and the developing of more efficient laboratories, the medical technologists are becoming a more vital part of the health affairs.

HEALTH AFFAIRS

The Division of Health Affairs, each section working independently and interdependently, comprises a major educational area in the University of North Carolina. Through class lectures, group discussions and consultations with students and instructors, and individual work with the patients the students learn their professional theory and skills.

The treatment of the patient as an individual integrates not only the areas of X-ray and Medical Technology usually associated with the hospital, but reaches for aid from dentistry, pharmacy, social work, and all concerned with returning this unique being to his community in the best possible health.

THE ORDER OF THE OLD LAMPSHADES

Successfully hidden under sheets and dirty lampshades, and banging on anything they can get their hands on, the Order of the Old Lampshades makes its ritualistic tappings twice a year. This noble order strives to recognize that oft-ignored campus group, the "do-nothings." Although some of the members have violated the principles of the Order and have shown excellence in some areas, they are allowed to remain Bulbs for the "nothing" spirit in which their deeds were performed.

The Lampshades are without projects, goals, and treasury. They merely exist. Each member is pledged to follow in the footsteps of the illustrious founder, Joe Lamp, after his bulb burned out. Though the Order frowns on initiative, they endeavored to increase their ranks through a campus-wide tapping last year and thusly, have gained prestige as a campus-wide honorary organization.

SCHOOL OF PHARMACY

E. A. BRECHT
Dean

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS — Jack Brooks, President; Curtis Holleman, Vice-President; Marsha Taylor, Secretary-Treasurer.

STUDENT BODY OFFICERS — Jerry Coln, President; Johnnie Kennedy, Vice-President; Becky Proffitt, Secretary-Treasurer.

The fall semester of 1964 marked the beginning of the sixty-seventh year of pharmaceutical education at the University of North Carolina.

This year's graduating class is the first to complete the five-year program for the Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy. We face our chosen profession with hopes of an improved education, strong dedication, and profound ambition.

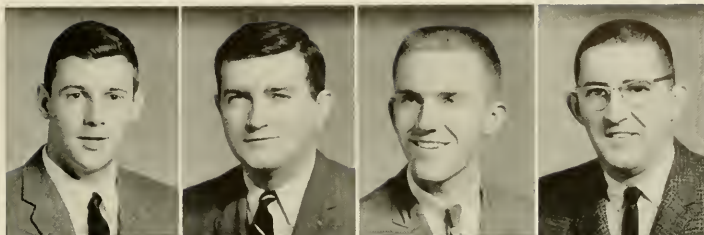

Not only does pharmacy school consist of many formal lectures and laboratories but also student organizations centered around points of interest such as Student Branches of the American Pharmaceutical Association, Rho Chi, Pharmacy Senate, Kappa Epsilon, Phi Delta Chi, and Kappa Psi. Social stimulus is provided by fraternity dances, parties, Christmas party, Pharmacy Weekend, and Senior Commencement Picnic.

This is the School of Pharmacy — study on a professional level with extra-curricular and social activities designed to develop conscientious and well-rounded pharmacists who will promote and develop the requirements by the health and welfare of mankind.

SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK

ARTHUR E. FINK
Dean

The School of Social Work derives from the School of Public Welfare (1920); the School of Public Administration (1932); and since 1950 has been the graduate School of Social Work, one of sixty-four such schools in the United States, Canada, and Puerto Rico.

The program is based upon two years of interrelated course instruction and supervised field experience in social welfare agencies, and culminates in the Master of Social Work degree. Opportunities are offered for professional training in social casework in such areas as family service, public welfare, child welfare, corrections, medical social service, psychiatric social work, and school social services. There is also provision for preparation for careers in community welfare organization, and for selected students in social welfare administration. Graduates are qualified to offer services in public and private welfare agencies in city, county, state, federal, national, and international settings.

SCHOOL OF DENTISTRY

The mission of the School of Dentistry is being realized in providing general dentists, dental hygienists, and specialists in Orthodontics and Pedodontics, for the State of North Carolina, as well as making available short courses to permit a program of continuing education. Further, new expanded curriculums have been designed and activated through the Extension Division for dental assistants and dental laboratory technicians.

This June the faculty is privileged to recommend to the University Administration, and the people of this Commonwealth, the names of individuals who have disciplined themselves to warrant the possession of a Doctor of Dental Surgery degree, Bachelor's degree, or Certificate in Dental Hygiene, or Master's degree or Certificate in one of the speciality areas.

The graduates, following the achievements of their degrees or certificates and their licenses to practice, immediately begin to assume a number of serious responsibilities and obligations to the people they serve. The knowledge and skills which the graduate has realized is only a base upon which must be built added experience and the knowledge to reflect current levels of professional progress. Accordingly, for those individuals in the health sciences who would serve their public and patients best, a program of continuing education is essential. The University, this School, and the State, therefore, are committed to provide the appropriate areas of instruction on a continuing basis. The pattern as well as the standards of practice is in the process of continuous change, and the graduate will soon be left behind unless current knowledge and skills are recognized and practiced. Therefore, it is anticipated that each graduate will return again for visits and for the various programs in continuing education.

SCHOOL OF PUBLIC HEALTH

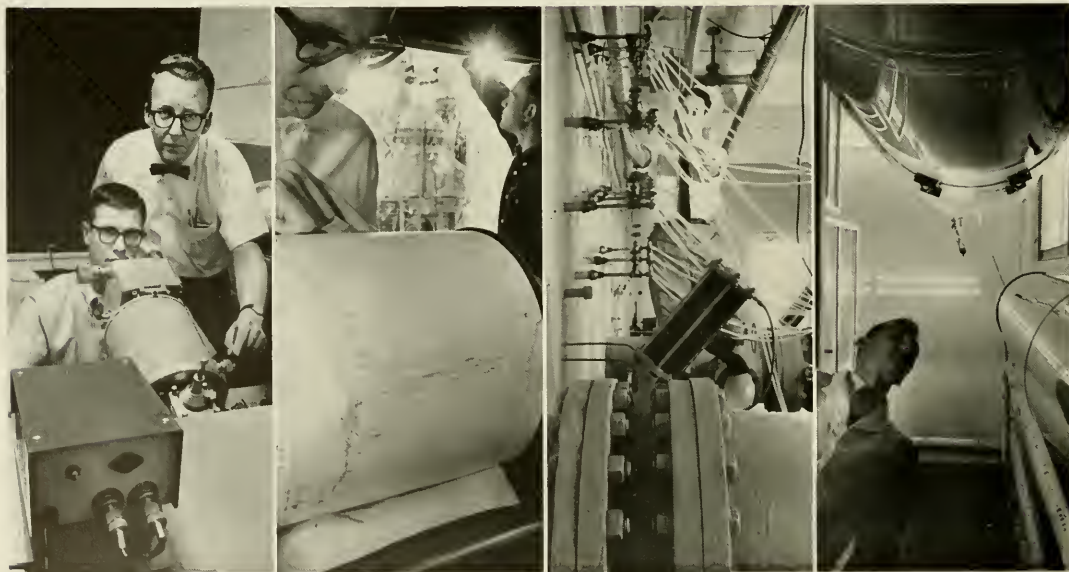

Students come into the School of Public Health with a sense of purpose — that of preparing themselves, usually in one academic year, for a new profession. Beginning as physicians, engineers, teachers, mathematicians, nurses, they have become imbued with the factor of health in economic and social development at home and abroad.

Students go out from the School of Public Health to the four corners of the earth. Problems of water and air pollution, of infant mortality and family planning, of nutrition, and of pestilence are universal in scope, and the public health student, whether he serves in a local community or in a far away land, employs the tools he has forged in his intensive training at our School.

One of fourteen such accredited Schools of Public Health in North America, students engage in study and research in ten academic departments of the school: Biostatistics, Environmental Sciences and Engineering, Epidemiology, Maternal and Child Health, Parasitology, Public Health Education, Public Health Nursing, Public Health Nutrition and Mental Health. All instruction is on the graduate level, with increasing numbers of students pursuing doctoral studies.

LAW SCHOOL

Founded as a private school in 1843 by William H. Battle, the Law School was not completely incorporated into the University until 1899. Battle, a judge of the Superior Court, later a justice of the State Supreme Court, was made Professor of Law in the University in 1845 and the University provided that the degree of Bachelor of Laws should be conferred on those completing the prescribed two year course.

The School maintained a certain independence from the University for a long time. The Professor of Laws received no salary, though he did receive fees from his classes. The students were not entirely subject to the discipline of the University. This was the position of the School during the professorship of Judge Battle, who retired in 1879; during the two years when the law classes were conducted by Kemp P. Battle, then President of the University; and to a considerable extent, during the professorship of John Manning, who was elected in 1881 and died in 1899. The building in which the School is now located was named for Professor Manning. In 1899, the School was completely incorporated into the University as the School of Law. The first dean was James C. MacRae, previously a justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina.

A succession of deans has followed Dean MacRae. This year marks the beginning of a new stage in the history of the School. Not only did the School open its doors to the largest first year class in its history, but also welcomed a new dean. J. D. Phillips succeeds Dean Henry P. Brandis, Jr. who served from 1949 until 1964.

J. DICKSON PHILLIPS
Dean

Surveying village health needs, an SK&F Foreign Fellow examines a child in Kurali, near New Delhi, India.

INDIA... At hospitals and medical outposts a long way from the classroom, medical students learn to cope with unfamiliar diseases; help to provide much-needed medical services to people in underdeveloped areas of the world; and contribute to international understanding and good will.

This unusual opportunity to work and study in foreign countries is offered to students through the Foreign Fellowships Program of Smith Kline & French Laboratories. Administered by the Association of American Medical Colleges, the program has enabled 123 students to work in 40 different countries during the past four years. Junior and senior medical students are eligible to apply for Fellowships, which provide for an average of 12 weeks' work abroad to be completed before internship.

Students who are interested in Fellowships should apply through the deans of their schools.

YOUTH... our future!

Cone Mills, a major producer of high quality and modern fabrics, is staffed to meet the needs of today. Yet we are already looking at the 70's and beyond to determine our needs as industry becomes increasingly complex.

To maintain our standards, we are seeking young people with imagination and initiative.

If you are interested in becoming a part of our future, write

EXIT LAUGHING...

After plodding day after day, week after week, and month after month, we have brought to the student body a new Yackety Yack, which we feel is entirely different from any other. Finally, the book that was sketches in September has become pictures and words in May. Suddenly all the work is over, the deadlines have been met, and an easygoing air drifts into the office as the shipment from Charlotte is awaited. An editor's dream has come true, but not without the diligent work of a great many people.

- To Dickie Baddour, an efficient Business Manager, who lightened the office with his good humor.
- To Carolyn Plott, Managing Editor, without whom this book surely would not have been published, and with whose efficiency and levity office work became light.
- To Ellen Solomon, who, as assistant managing editor, helped Carolyn and the staff to remain sane.
- To Tom Rogers, Head Photographer, who produced some of the best pictures ever seen in an annual with a certain new freshness.
- To Town and Country Studio, who produced the excellent quality pictures of the beauty court.
- To Jim Wallace, whose color picture of the Bell Tower was an invaluable asset.
- To Mr. Fay Smith, our portrait photographer, whose efficiency and cooperation at Smith Studio greatly aided us in meeting our deadlines.
- To the Photo Lab, who provided us with quick shots.
- To Mr. Howard Henry and the staff of G. M., who provided us with the Beauty Contest and publicity shots.
- To Mr. Frank Fleming, our printer, whose good humor and interest have helped produce a book of high caliber.
- To Mr. Price Coursey, engraver's representative, whose untiring prodding and encouraging gave us the book.
- Most of all, to the rest of the staff, too numerous to mention and yet without each of whom this book would certainly never have come out.

Thanks to all as I exit laughing.

Sincerely,
Neil Thomas
